Actor-filmmaker Satish Kaushik dies at 66

Actor-filmmaker Satish Kaushik, whose comic timing in classics such as 'Mr India' and 'Jaane Bhi Do Yaaro' is still remembered, died after a heart attack while he was on his way to a Gurugram hospital early on Thursday. He was 66. Kaushik, who acted, directed, wrote and produced a range of films over four decades, was at a friend's home in Delhi when he began to feel uneasy, his friend Anupam Kher said. He is survived by his wife and daughter

CHHATTISGARH

Delivery at the Doorstep

The Chhattisgarh government of Bhupesh Baghel has put the public back into public service with a plethora of schemes.

MITAN SCHEME BRINGS COMFORT AND RELIEF TO THE BUSY ROUTINE OF URBAN LIFE

Mitan has reached the homes of 51,000 people

13 TYPES OF CERTIFICATES INCLUDING BIRTH, DEATH, MARRIAGE, AND DOMICILE ARE NOW BEING DELIVERED TO CITIZENS AT THEIR DOORSTEP

Speedy Certificates Reach 51,000 People

The Chhattisgarh Government's Mukhyamantri Mitan Yojana is bringing major relief to people caught up in the daily routine of urban life. Important documents such as certificates of birth, death, domicile, and marriage are now being made available to beneficiaries at their doorstep. Mitan has taken documents to the homes of more than 51,000 people so far.

On the initiative of Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel, under the Mukhyamantri Mitan Yojana, started by the Urban Administration Development Department from May 1, 2022, 62,000 people in all the 14 municipal corporations of the state booked appointments to get their official documents issued and delivered at home. Under this scheme, more than 1.25 lakh citizens have obtained information regarding the issuance of government documents by contacting Mitan Yojana's toll free number.

As many as 13 types of services are being provided under Mitan Yojana. To avail of the Mukhyamantri Mitan Yojana, the applicant may call on the toll free number 14545. Once the appointment is booked, the applicant receives an SMS with the booking information. Thereafter, the Mitan official visits the house of the applicant on the given time and date and collects the necessary documents. He uploads the documents on the portal through his computer tablet. After this, the verified documents are sent to the respective departments online. The department concerned issues the particular certificate in the name of the applicant. The Mitan agent then delivers the certificate to the applicant's house.

More than 41.57 lakh people benefit from free medical treatment and testing facilities

Rethinking Urban Health For Slum-Dwellers

Quality Healthcare For All

The Garhbo Nava Chhattisgarh is committed to providing quality health facilities to the last person in the villages and remote forest areas of Chhattisgarh under the guidance of Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel and the Health and Family Welfare Department. This scheme was launched on October 2, 2019, on the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

Due to shortage of doctors in rural hospitals, often even basic health services are not available to sick people on time, due to which the disease is not detected and in case of complications, the patients have to be referred to bigger hospitals. With the facility of check-up and treatment under the Chief Minister Haat Bazar Clinic Scheme every week, such patients will be able to get basic health services quickly.

The absence of pathology laboratories in rural and urban slum areas forces patients to travel to urban areas even for small tests. Now blood tests for diseases like blood pressure, diabetes, sickle cell, anemia, hemoglobin, malaria, typhoid will be done free of cost in the Haat Bazar clinic itself. Since 2019 till now, a total of more than 48 lakh people have availed of the health services in Haat Bazar clinics.

मुख्यमंत्री हाट बाजार
क्लीनिक योजना

At the initiative of Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel, there is a facility to provide poor families living in slum communities with free medical treatment. Under the Mukhyamantri Shahari Slum Swasthya Yojana, operated by the Urban Administration and Development Department, 41,57,878 people have been treated by medical teams in mobile medical units.

Under the scheme, 120 mobile medical units, equipped with doctors, paramedical teams, medical instruments, and medicines, are providing healthcare facilities to slum communities in the entire state's urban regions. Through this scheme, so far, about 9,75,255 patients have undergone pathology tests. More than 35,25,895 patients have been given free-of-cost medicines. Amongst them, more than about 2,68,475 people have benefited from free medical treatment and check-ups.

Under this scheme, so far people living in 169 urban regions have been treated through free medical check-ups, treatment, and medication. The Urban Administration and Development Minister, Shivkumar Dahariya, has given instructions to departmental officers that free medication after thorough check-ups should be provided to people living in the slum communities of urban areas and other needy people.

The first phase of the Mukhyamantri Shahari Slum Swasthya Yojana started on November 1, 2020, to provide health facilities to people living in 14 municipality regions in the first phase. Under this scheme, 60 mobile medical units had been launched to treat people. On March 31, 2022, these mobile medical units extended to the entire state, and 60 more mobile medical units were launched.

THE FEMALE FOCUS IN MORE THAN 1,900 CAMPS

So far, 1,969 camps have been set up under the Mukhyamantri Dai-Didi mobile clinic yojana, while 1,47,362 women and girls living in the slums of Raipur, Bilaspur, and Bhilai Municipal areas have been treated through Dai-Didi Clinics by setting up camps near their homes.

The Mukhyamantri Dai-Didi Clinic Yojana is managed by the Chhattisgarh Government's Urban Administration and Development Department. Under the initiative, a team of female doctors and staff members arrives in the vehicle of Dai-Didi Clinic's mobile medical unit and treats poor women and girls for free for a variety of diseases. These mobile medical units have performed lab tests on 28,940 women and distributed free medicines to 1,40,33 lakh women.

Previously, such women living in poor slum neighborhoods were unable to receive treatment owing to a lack of time or a variety of other factors.

Quick Permits For Commercial Vehicles

One can apply for a permit through the dealer right after purchasing a new vehicle

Permits can be issued without applying to the transport office while purchasing new commercial vehicles

Vehicle sellers and authorized dealers can issue permits

The Transport Department's new facility named Tuhar Sarkar Tuhar Dwar has been successfully launched at the initiative of Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel and under the guidance of the Transport Minister, Mohammad Akbar.Under this service, transport facilities are being provided at the doorstep of the vehicle owner by the Transport Department. The buyer can apply for a permit for newly-purchased commercial vehicles during the purchase itself. He doesn't need to visit the transport office to apply for a new vehicle permit.

Getting a permit for all commercial vehicles weighing more than 3,000 kg is compulsory. To obtain a permit, the potential buyer has to apply online and then visit the transport office. Thereafter, the permit is issued after marking it with a seal.

Many vehicle buyers lack knowledge of a permit's legal requirements. Buyers who purchase small vehicles often ignore the permit, while considering it a mere registration requirement. They often consider vehicle registration to be the complete document. However, when the vehicle is involved in an accident, the insurance company refuses to issue the insurance amount in the absence of a permit. As a result, the vehicle owner has to suffer a considerable financial burden.

Permits are of two types. The state permit is issued for driving vehicles in the state, and the national permit is issued for driving vehicles in three or more states. The dealer offers the facility for both types of permits.

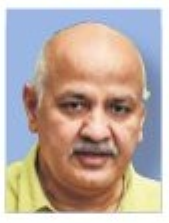
ED's turn to arrest Sisodia

Action comes a day before his bail plea in a related case will come up before a CBI court

AMIT MUKHERJEE @New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Thursday arrested former Delhi deputy chief minister Manish Sisodia on charges of money laundering in connection with the Delhi excise policy scam.

Sisodia is already in Tihar Jail on 14-day judicial custody after his arrest by the CBI in a related case. He was questioned by the ED there for three days before his formal arrest. The sleuths claimed he was not cooperating and wanted his custody to unravel the alleged laundering of kickbacks generated by amending the Delhi excise policy.



Part of the kickbacks was also used to fund poll campaigns of Sisodia's Aam Aadmi Party, the ED alleged. The arrest by the ED comes a day before the expected hearing of his bail plea before the CBI court on Friday.

The ED had obtained special permission on Monday evening from a PMLA (Prevention of Money Laundering Act) special court to question him inside Tihar. According to sources, there is ample material to confront Sisodia with evidence and statements of the other accused, to seek his response on the illegal money trail.

The ED is expected to obtain a production warrant from the court and then produce him before it on Friday seeking his custody for interrogation. If it gets his custody, he could be taken to its headquarters in central Delhi for questioning and confrontation with other accused in the case.

BJP, Congress urge CEC to hold single-phase elections in K'taka

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

CHIEF Election Commissioner (CEC) Rajiv Kumar and election commissioners Anup Chandra Pandey and Arun Goel on Thursday reviewed preparations for the 2023 assembly elections in the state. The CEC and top officers from the Election Commission of India (ECI) held separate meetings with representatives of political parties at Vikas Soudha.

The CEC and election commissioners are on a three-day visit to the state. The Congress and BJP delegations gave several suggestions to the ECI for holding free and fair elections. They urged the Commission to conduct elections in a single phase instead of two phases.

Chief Election Commissioner Rajiv Kumar arrives at KIA on Thursday

"We urged the Commission to immediately notify the elections and enforce model code of conduct to prevent inducements by ministers and others," senior Congress leader and former MP V S Ugrappa, who attended the meeting, said.

He said elections should be held in a single phase to avoid misuse of powers by central and state ministers. He alleged that 33 lakh voters' names have been deleted from the voters' list. Steps should be taken to include them. During the meeting, the Congress demanded that the ECI act on the report by the Regional Commissioner of Bengaluru, who conducted a probe into the alleged tampering of the voters' list by "Chilume" NGO.

The Congress also urged the Commission to ensure that the EVMs used in Gujarat and UP elections are not used in the state and officers working in the same place, including the CEO's office, for over three years transferred elsewhere.

Kavitha calls Cong arrogant, Jairam asks her to worry about ED instead

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE rift in the Opposition was out in the open on Thursday after Bharat Rashtra Samithi leader K Kavitha slammed the Congress saying it had been reduced to a big regional party, adding it should shed arrogance and face reality.

The Congress shot back with its general secretary Jairam Ramesh advising her to instead worry about the Enforcement Directorate and jail. "Kavitha should worry about ED and jail," Ramesh told this newspaper, alluding to her consent to appear before the federal probe agency on Saturday for questioning in connection with the Delhi liquor policy scam.

Kavitha, daughter of Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao, however, urged Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge and AICC general secretary K C Venugopal to send party representatives to the protest she is scheduled to hold on Friday at Delhi's Jantar Mantar demanding the introduction of the Women's Reservation Bill in the upcoming session of Parliament. While over 6,000 people are expected to participate, 18 political parties will join Friday's protest.

Kavitha said the Congress should 'understand the ground reality' and join hands with strong regional parties to defeat the BJP in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. "Congress is no longer a national party but just a big regional party. It should shed its arrogance," she said. She, however, hailed former Congress president Sonia Gandhi for supporting the Women's Reservation Bill in Parliament in 2010. "Though it was a coalition government, Soniaji got the bill to the Rajya Sabha," said Kavitha.

US flags India-China 'armed confrontation'

MAYANK SINGH @New Delhi

RISING tensions between India and China, as well as India and Pakistan, could lead to 'armed confrontation', warns a new US intelligence report.

India-China relations "will remain strained in the wake of the countries' lethal clash in 2020, the most serious in decades", notes 2023 Annual Threat Assessment of the U.S. Intelligence Community.

It was in May 2020, as first reported by this newspaper, the PLA troops had clashed with the Indian Army soldiers in the Eastern Ladakh, which led to stand-offs at multiple points. Subsequently, the two countries deployed more than 50,000 soldiers on each side of the Line of Actual Control.

"The expanded military postures by both India and China along the disputed border elevate the risk of armed confrontation between two nuclear powers that might involve direct threats to US interests, and calls for US intervention," the report says.

As for Pakistan, it adds that under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, India is more likely to respond with military force to "perceived or real provocations", adding that Islamabad has "a long history of supporting anti-India militant groups". P12

BJP MLA Madal Virupakshappa arrives at the Lokayukta office in Bengaluru on Thursday | EXPRESS

Madal quizzed, 2 more FIRs against son

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Lokayukta police on Thursday questioned BJP MLA K Madal Virupakshappa for several hours in connection with the seizure of cash from his son's office in Bengaluru a few days ago.

The Channagiri MLA resigned as Chairman of Karnataka Soaps and Detergents Limited (KSDL) after his son was arrested for allegedly accepting bribe. The high court granted him interim anticipatory bail on Tuesday and directed him to appear before the investigation officer within 48 hours.

Two days after the court order, Virupakshappa appeared before the investigation officer on Thursday evening. The investigating team questioned the MLA regarding the cash seized during search operations.

Meanwhile, the Lokayukta police have registered two more FIRs against the MLA's son Prashanth Madal, financial advisor and chief accounts officer of Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board, and three executives of two private companies, who were allegedly found with cash to be paid as bribe for tenders awarded to them by KSDL.

In the first FIR registered on March 2, Virupakshappa has been named as accused No 1 and his son Prashanth Madal accused No. 2. P6

Last wish: Archaeologist John Fritz's ashes immersed in Tungabhadra

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Hubballi

NOTED archaeologist from London John Fritz, who died last week at the age of 87, loved Hampi and spent most part of his life enjoying the marvelous monuments there. He was also impressed by the Hindu traditions and wanted his ashes to be immersed in the Tungabhadra river in Hampi after his death.

John's family members, including his granddaughter, visited Hampi recently and immersed his ashes in the Tungabhadra after performing the rituals associated with the ceremony.

The priests at Virupaksha temple said that John was a regular visitor to the temple and used to come up with new theories on the monuments in Hampi whenever he visited.

"John's family members came to us and told about his last wish that his ashes should be immersed here. His last rites were conducted as per the Hindu tradition in London. The family also brought his "kundali" and we performed the rituals near Purandara Mantapa in Hampi," a priest said.

Krishnadevaraya, the scion of Vijayanagara dynasty, who lives at Anegundi near Hampi, recalled his association with John and said, "John and his friends used to meet my father whenever they visited Hampi."

MODI-ALBANESE FRIENDSHIP TAKES CENTRE STAGE BEFORE FOURTH TEST

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Ahmedabad

CRICKET diplomacy in the Indian context is an old tale. Multiple political leaders have indulged in it because of the sport's popularity and its benefits. Soon after becoming Prime Minister 2014, Narendra Modi visited then Australian counterpart, Tony Abbott, at the Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG) for a farewell dinner hosted by the latter. The bonhomie was hard to miss between the two leaders with Modi saying the meeting signalled a 'new journey of our (between Australia and India) relationship has begun'.

PM Narendra Modi and his Australian counterpart Anthony Albanese at Motera on Thursday | AP

A part of that 'new journey' was on display at the Narendra Modi Stadium in Ahmedabad on Thursday just before the start of the fourth Test of the Border-Gavaskar Trophy on Thursday. The current Australian Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, who has been in office for under a year, is in India to deepen ties between the two nations, including in key sectors like defence.

Both leaders became the public faces for a cricketing campaign over the last couple of days: '75 years of friendship through cricket'. Posters adorning this message had come up everywhere inside the main stadium complex.

That 'friendship' was front and centre as the two of them walked next to each other to the giant stage that was erected for the function. While India was hoping for a bumper crowd capable of breaking the existing Test match attendance crowd, a still sizable crowd bore witness to both of them being presented with mementoes.

After the meet and greet (with the teams too), the crowd waved them on as they went on a ceremonial lap of honour around the stadium on a golf cart. It made for a slightly surreal experience as the two captains were already ready and waiting for the toss but tradition can wait when diplomacy was on the first page of the menu. Some chants of 'Modi, Modi, Modi', cut through the early morning air before cricket assumed centre stage.

21.97L women opted for BMTC free travel offer

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MORE than 20 lakh women used the free travel offer by Bangalore Metropolitan Transport Corporation (BMTC) on the occasion of International Women's Day on Wednesday. BMTC said that 21.97 lakh women travelled on Wednesday, nearly 2 lakh above the expectation of the bus corporation.

BMTC had estimated that if 20 lakh women opt for its service, the total cost incurred by the government would be Rs 8.17 crore. The corporation did not reveal the cost incurred for free travel on Wednesday.

Of the six divisions, West had the highest ridership with 5,15,988, followed by North with 4,73,596. The total ridership, including male passengers, on Wednesday stood at 33.37 lakh.

25 acres of BDA land in Begur grabbed, sold: Film producer

Umapathi claims despite HC ruling, land grabbers colluded with BDA officials

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

FILM producer and Bommanahalli ticket aspirant Umapathi Srinivas Gowda alleged that 25 acres of land worth over Rs 1,000 crore, belonging to Bengaluru Development Authority (BDA), was grabbed and converted into revenue sites and sold by land grabbers and even government officials.

Speaking to the media in the city on Thursday, Gowda alleged that in survey numbers from 27/1 to 29/35 and surrounding areas of Devarachikkanahalli, Begur hobli, in Bengaluru South taluk, BDA spent Rs 16 crore for layout formation 30 years ago.

He said some people approached the Karnataka High Court, challenging the BDA claims, but the HC ruled in BDA's favour. The same people then approached the Supreme Court, where the HC verdict was upheld.

"Despite the top court's ruling, land grabbers colluding with BDA officials, produced fake documents and grabbed BDA land. They converted the property into revenue sites and made profits, while the original land allottees are left in the lurch," Gowda alleged.

He said he was raising the issue, seeking justice for hundreds of owners who had approached him, and that it's not a political stunt.

He also alleged that the grabbed sites were sold through real estate firms at a cost of Rs 12,000 per sqft. Gowda claimed the people involved are Ram Mohan, Sunitha B, Umesh and Muni Reddy. The matter was also raised in the Belagavi session and the CM is aware of it. Interestingly, Muni Reddy is the father of Bommanahalli BJP MLA M Satish Reddy, and Ram Mohan, a former deputy mayor, is a confidant of the MLA, he pointed out. Gowda said he would file a public interest litigation in this regard. The allegations come weeks after RTI activist Hemanth Raju alleged that Umapathi Srinivas Gowda had illegally taken seven BDA sites at survey no. 11 of Begur hobli. "The land belongs to me as it is my ancestral property and I am the rightful owner," Gowda justified.

GIFTS FOR MEDIA?

While Umapathi Srinivas Gowda was busy with the press conference, one of his followers was handing over envelopes filled with Rs 5,000 in cash as a gift to some reporters, camerapersons, and photographers, by taking them to a corner of the hall. Some mediapersons walked out immediately after the press conference.

Trained hands: Rastha to save lives on highways

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

TO train trauma responders like police, ambulance drivers and citizens, Rajiv Gandhi University's 'Jeeva Raksha Trust', in collaboration with the health and family welfare department, launched the 'Rastha' (Rapid Response, Assessment, Stabilisation and Safe Transport in Highway Accidents) initiative here on Thursday. The ministry of road transport and highways has identified 26 accident hotspots in nine districts across the state, where people living within a 3-km radius will be trained.

The initiative aims to save thousands of lives lost in accidents, by giving necessary training to responders like police, fire safety personnel, ambulance drivers, hospital staff and interested citizens in handling polytrauma victims (injury to multiple body parts and organs). In many cases, life is lost as the victim bleeds excessively before reaching hospital, or because the airway is blocked, said Dr Yogesh B, programme director, Jeeva Raksha Trust.

People need training on how to handle the head and neck of a victim after an accident. Our training will focus on arresting bleeding. By taking these simple steps, lives of accident victims can be saved, said Dr Yogesh.

Accident hotspots identified by the ministry in 2022 fall in the districts of Mandya, Mysuru, Hubbali-Dharwad, Tumakuru, Davangere, Belagavi, Kalaburagi and Mangaluru.

Through the 'Rastha' initiative, each hotspot will have 160 skilled responders and 60 trained hospital staff. In addition, two government-affiliated trauma centres will have targeted, staff training sessions to improve skills in managing complex polytrauma victims.

Immediately after an accident, the nearby hospital will be informed so that they keep the facility ready to receive the victim and start treatment, and the ambulance will drive straight to the trauma centre.

Principal secretary, health department, T K Anil Kumar said Karnataka is losing nearly 4,000 lives every year in road accidents, and the aim is to reduce the number of deaths.

"Rastha will help supplement the efforts of our health department in extending free medical treatment in empanelled hospitals for the victims of road accidents. With timely intervention, we can save precious lives lost in road accidents," said Health Commissioner Randeep D.

II PU exam: 2 malpractice cases on Day 1

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

SECOND-year Pre-University (PU) Board examination began across the state on Thursday. Of the 5.33 lakh students, 5.1 lakh wrote their first language examination, with Karnataka State Examination and Assessment Board (KSEAB) reporting 95.55 per cent attendance.

In all, 23,771 students were absent. While Udupi district recorded the highest student attendance of 98.99 per cent, Bidar recorded the lowest of 90.49 per cent. Bengaluru Urban and Rural districts registered 95.73 per cent and 96.8 per cent, respectively. KSEAB Chairman Gopalakrishna H N told TNIE that two incidents of exam malpractice, one at Yadgiri and the other at Belagavi, were reported.

A source in the Education Department said that there had been no major incidents related to wearing of hijab in the state. Earlier, Minister for School Education B C Nagesh stated that students wearing hijab will not be allowed inside the examination halls. However, some girls, who entered the examination halls wearing hijab, agreed to remove it after the authorities persuaded them to do so. Sources said one such case had been reported in Malleswaram, where a student agreed to remove the hijab after her principal asked her to do so.

The board had set up 1,109 centres across the state. Nagesh said prohibitory orders were imposed around the centres for the peaceful conduct of the examination. The minister visited some centres in his Tiptur constituency.

HC order today on Class 5, 8 Board assessment

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court will pronounce its order on pleas against Board assessment for Classes 5 and 8 on Friday. Justice Pradeep Singh Yerur, who reserved the order after hearing the parties on Thursday, said the order will be passed on Friday.

The petitions were filed by Registered Unaided Private Schools and Organisation for Unaided Recognised Schools, questioning the circular dated December 12, 2022, issued by the state government about Board assessment for Classes 5 and 8 in the middle of the academic year.

The state government contended that there is no Board examination. There is only a minor change in the process of assessing children and 80 per cent of the total 100 marks are being given to students based on the continuous internal assessment made by the respective schools from the beginning of the academic year. It is only for the remaining 20 per cent marks for the final assessment process that question papers are prepared at the state level and evaluation of the paper is done at taluk and block levels.

The state government further argued that the question papers will be for 40 marks (20 Multiple Choice Questions and 20 elaborate) and 50 per cent of the marks obtained in this exam would be considered for counting the 20 per cent assessment. The process of assessment is done in terms of Section 16 of the RTE Act, the state government told the court.

CONGRESS WORKERS AGAINST TICKET FOR EX-MAYOR

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

SEVERAL Congress workers have said that they will protest if the party gives ticket to Bengaluru ex-mayor Sampath Raj to contest from CV Raman Nagar. The mood in the CV Raman Nagar Congress camp is volatile, as Raj's name is doing the rounds to fight against sitting MLA S Raghu. The Congress leader in the Assembly says Raj may have impressed KPCC chief DK Shivakumar, but voters feel otherwise. The workers feel bringing Raj will be an insult to local leaders and will also send the wrong message as the latter was arrested in connection with the DJ Halli Riots

Hoysalanagar ward ex-corporator S Anand, who is a Tamilian, is backed not only by Congress workers, but is also getting support from the rival BJP camp. "I am young and have connections with all neighbouring ward leaders, and if given a ticket, I can give a fight to sitting MLA Raghu. I even approached BJP rebel leader Chandrappa Reddy, who is popular in Konena Agrahara, Jeevan Bimanagar and Tippasandra," said Anand. An ex-Congress corporator said Raj is being supported, but here voters do not support him, especially after the DJ Halli incident.

"We found it difficult to convince workers here to vote for Raj the last time itself. If Shivakumar pushes his name, he will be responsible for the defeat of Congress from the Assembly segment," said an ex-corporator.

Agreeing with the situation in convincing voters to come for events to project Raj as a candidate, Manjunath Reddy, Indiranagar Block President, Youth Congress, said he has to work irrespective of the candidate selected by the party. "Having a local candidate from CV Raman Nagar will be an advantage. We can demand voters in known circles to vote for him. The party must decide," he said.

Financially you may feel you're on to a winner, but keep your own counsel and be very wary indeed of friends who come up with bright ideas. Social costs are likely to spiral over the next two weeks, and you may have to act fast to avoid paying for something which is nothing to do with you.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
For quite some time you appear to have buried your head in the sand as far as one or two personal situations are concerned. With lunar influences so strong today, this could be a good moment to lift your head above the parapet and say what you think.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
There are periods when you need to spend a little more time at home or dealing with important family issues. This is one of them, so hopefully relations will play ball. In love, the lesson is that relationships need to be worked at - no effort should be spared!

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You will be able to express yourself with skill and precision, not to say poetic imagination. This is therefore an excellent moment to appeal to other people, persuading them that they must do what you say! But will you succeed? Well, yes - at least part of the time.

Answer: The question as to why the tree had died — STUMPED THEM

A 70-year-old home alone woman was robbed of her gold earrings worth around Rs 25,000 on Sunday evening when she returned home after her evening walk. The 24-year-old accused, AL Mohan Kumar, who is a native of Kuduru in Magadi taluk, was arrested by Govindaraja Nagar police on Wednesday. He was a tenant in one of the buildings owned by the victim, Nagamma, in Subanna Garden

Furniture store on Sarjapur Road gutted

Bengaluru: Fire engulfed a furniture shop in Kaikondanahalli, on Sarjapur Road, gutting beds and furniture worth several lakhs of rupees, on Thursday morning. Officials of the fire and emergency services department said the incident occurred at 'Bed Corner', a shop located on the first floor of a building on Sarjapur Road. "We received an alert at 8.15am, and two fire tenders rushed to the spot in five minutes from the Sarjapur fire station. The flames were high as mattresses had caught fire," an official said. The reason for the fire is under investigation. The incident led to slow movement of vehicles on the busy road. In another incident, a minor fire broke out at a drain on Tannery Road, around 2.30pm on Thursday. A fire tender from Hebbal station was rushed to douse it. As gas pipes are laid next to the drain, a traffic policeman on duty alerted the fire department.

Health overhaul: BBMP to set up surveillance unit

One Health Cell to keep track of infections, global health trends

MOHAMMED YACOOB @ Bengaluru

THE Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) will soon have a metropolitan surveillance unit and a One Health Cell, as an effort to overhaul the city's health system.

BBMP Special Commissioner for Health Dr Thrilok Chandra told TNIE that the Palike will come up with a metropolitan surveillance unit in three months. The unit will help screen some major illnesses and infections. "The unit is a centrally funded project and will come up at Anand Rao Circle. In addition, the Palike will have a 'One Health Cell' comprising representatives from health expertise from various fields. They will meet and keep track of infections and health trends across the world and India, and give suggestions and recommendations to the Palike," said Chandra.

According to BBMP sources, post the Covid-19 impact, the health and family welfare ministry took these initiatives to keep a tab on future pandemics and communicable diseases.

"The metropolitan disease surveillance unit will conduct research and forecast epidemic-prone diseases like dengue, chikungunya, leptospirosis and Zika virus before its outbreak. Earlier, for major diseases and infections, the samples had to be sent to the National Institute of Virology, Pune. The samples were also sent to the Indian SARS-CoV-2 Genomics Consortium (INCASOG) at Bengaluru Medical College and Research Institute after the Covid outbreak. With the metropolitan disease surveillance unit to be operational in three months, dependency on other such hitech labs will reduce," said a senior doctor from the BBMP health department.

Lauding the initiatives, Dr CN Manjunath, leading cardiologist and director of Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences and Research, said the initiative of setting up a metropolitan surveillance unit at Bengaluru will reduce the burden on medical colleges and big hospitals. "For the over 1.4 crore city population, such a separate unit is needed. My understanding goes that from all BBMP wards, samples can be sent to this unit in case of communicable diseases. About One Health Cell, suggestions and recommendations can be given on vector-borne disease, rabies and its control methods," said Manjunath.

SEXTORTION

Two women among six held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

IN a swift operation, police arrested six persons, including two women, on Wednesday in a sextortion case in which the accused extorted Rs 3 lakh from a 39-year-old private firm employee in the city.

According to the police, an unidentified woman called the victim, a resident of Munekolalu, and asked him if he was interested in having an affair with her. The victim, who is a subscriber of an online dating app, fell into the trap and rushed to her house at Royal Shelters Layout near Electronics City. When the victim was talking to her, three of her associates entered the house and they forced him to undress. They made him pose with the woman and shot a video. They threatened him that they would upload the video on social media if he did not pay them money. They extorted Rs 3 lakh from the victim.

The incident happened on March 3 and the victim filed a police complaint on March 7 when the accused started blackmailing him for more money. The Begur police have registered a case. Further investigations are on.

Narrow escape for motorists as level crossing falls on them

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

IN an alleged act of negligence on the part of a gate man manning the railway Level Crossing (LC) gate on Nagawara Main Road, the gates on either side that he had opened after a train had passed, came down suddenly when the motorists crossing. No one was injured.

The incident happened at 3.58pm on this crowded road as soon as the Kochuveli Express had departed. Gate man Chandru was on duty at LC gate no. 142, located around 300m from the Kaadugondanahalli police station. The road links Nagawara on one side and Doddi, Fraser Town and Shivajinagar on the other.

Eyewitness S Siddaraju, a social worker, heading to Nagawara from Kadugondanahalli on a two-wheeler told TNIE, "The railway staffer opened the gate and rushed to his cabin nearby. The vehicles in front of me moved ahead, and when I was about to go, the gate came down in seconds. People behind screamed loudly. A cop rushed and shouted to the gate man to come out. A few vehicles got stuck on the tracks between the two gates." The gate man came out and raised the gate, apologising to those around, Siddaraju added. "It was a lucky escape for many as two iron gates came down suddenly. It could have injured two-wheeler riders and pedestrians. I would call it complete negligence on the part of the railway staffer," he said.

KG Halli traffic police said, "Luckily, no one was injured. The Railways had intimated us some time ago this gate and four others nearby would be removed and replaced with an underpass," said a policeman.

Level crossing gate on Nagawara Main Road suddenly falls on motorists and passersby | EXPRESS

This reporter checked the system in place there. The gate is operated manually with a handle that controls a circular pulley-like structure that controls the gate operations. To make it doubly-safe, a steel wire is clasped round the handle and is fastened to the bottom of this structure. This is to ensure the gate does not budge. Asked what happened, the gatekeeper, an ex-serviceman, claimed it was not his fault. "The wind blew at great force and shook the gates. The steel wire must have automatically come out of its position." Chandru claimed it was a minor incident and he did not think it merited alerting his higher-ups at Banaswadi railway station. He added, "In three years I have worked here, something of this kind has taken place for the first time."

BJP MLC holds Cong hand, hits out at govt over graft

Puttanna, a four-time MLC, may get ticket for Rajajinagar seat

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AHEAD of Assembly elections, when every camp is filled with trepidation regarding defections, BJP MLC from Bengaluru Teachers' Constituency Puttanna, a Vokkaliga leader, joined Congress. He resigned from the Legislative Council and BJP's primary membership on Thursday.

Political pundits called this the beginning of Congress endeavours to induct more leaders from BJP. The four-time MLC and former deputy chairman of the Karnataka Legislative Council joined Congress in the presence of the AICC general secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala, KPCC president DK Shivakumar and CLP leader Siddaramaiah at the KPCC office. He is likely to be Congress candidate from Rajajinagar Assembly constituency.

Congress leaders, including Surjewala, called Puttanna's move bold and courageous, going against alleged corruption in the government. They said Puttanna's popularity in Bengaluru Teachers' Constituency including Bengaluru Rural and the Ramanagara will be a huge push for the party.

"I was unable to do justice to my constituency, which compelled me to take this decision. I have submitted my resignation to the Council chairman's office and resignation from BJP to the state president's office. I felt it was against my conscience to remain in the saffron camp, and the government which is steeped in corruption,'' he said.

"Not a single work of the Teachers' community has been implemented, which I have brought to the notice of the CM. I had also spoken out during the session as well," he claimed.

He was confident that Congress would make use of his experience. But the Congress ticket aspirants from Rajajinagar, including Manohar and his supporters, opposed his induction. They fomented ruckus at the KPCC office. "It is unwarranted to oppose his induction, and the KPCC president should take action against them," said Siddarmaiah, who intervened and settled the matters. Another aspirant CS Puttaraju, a former Bengaluru deputy mayor, of Veerashaiva Lingayat community was also upset. Puttanna was elected BJP MLC on November 10, 2020 and his term ends on November 9, 2026.

S'mogga Cong ex-chief quits, blames leadership

Shivamogga: Former Shivamogga Congress president Ti Na Shrinivas, who has been in Congress party for the last 38 years, quit the party, upset over leadership favouring candidates who have money power and ignoring loyalists. Shrinivas confirmed to reporters his decision on Thursday, saying, "I have worked as the voice of former minister Kagodu Timmappa, and as the district Congress president. Without any prior notice, I was removed from the post. Congress has no place for workers without money power. Hence, I will continue to strengthen Malenadu Raitara Horata Samiti, and will be the voice of farmers in resolving various problems of Maland region," he said. KPCC leaders who were in Shivamogga had asked aspirants how much they can spend in the Assembly elections, he said, adding that he will contest from Sagar constituency as an independent candidate.

'Moving closer to 150 seats'

AICC General Secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala said that the screening committee, which had met for three days had discussed the selection of candidates for all 224 Assembly constituencies. "It attempted to build a consensus. We will soon send the list to the Central Election Committee of the AICC for approval. In most of the cases, consent was taken from all leaders, and we will achieve our mission of winning 150 seats," he claimed.

Shivakumar said that the screening committee had analysed all parameters, and keeping in view all opinions and the interests of the party, a decision would be taken. Justice has been done to all communities as part of social engineering, he added.

When asked about rumours of Mandya Lok Sabha member Sumalatha Ambareesh joining BJP, Shivakumar riposted, "Let her join that party".

Sumalatha may join BJP ahead of Modi's visit

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mysuru

AHEAD of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Mandya to inaugurate the Bengaluru-Mysuru expressway on March 12, speculation was rife that Mandya MP Sumalatha Ambareesh might join BJP.

Actor-turned-politician Sumalatha had recently met former chief minister SM Krishna at his residence in Bengaluru, triggering speculation. Hindavalu Sachidananda had recently joined the saffron party, and has sought a ticket to contest from Srirangapatna taluk. This has also sparked a discussion if Sumalatha would jump to BJP.

However, the MP is observing a studied silence, and said she will be discussing her plans with her supporters. But with Modi to be in Mandya, and the state BJP leadership hoping to breach the JDS bastion, sources said that supporters are trying to convince her to join BJP.

Congress had indirectly supported her during Lok Sabha elections, and the leaders had tried to convince her to join the party to take on JDS and BJP in Mandya. But she has refrained from taking any decision.

However, to scotch speculation, Sumalatha will be holding a press conference at her residence in Chamundeshwarinagar in Mandya on March 10.

JDS MLA CS Puttaraju, who is in Mysuru to inspect preparations for JDS' Pancharathna Yatra at Uthanahalli near Chamundi Hills on March 26, confidently said that Sumalatha will join BJP. "Sumalatha has planned to join BJP during Modi's visit to Mandya on March 12. Since it is a government programme, she will be joining on March 10," he claimed.

BJP's Malur meet turns into squabble

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Malur

TWO groups of BJP workers were embroiled in an altercation in Malur during a preliminary meeting of Vijay Sankalp Yatra on Thursday. A few workers came close to exchanging blows. However, the police intervened, facilitating the meeting to take place. Sources said that followers of former MLA Kodi Halli Manjunath Gowda were present on stage. When district president Venugopal was addressing the gathering, ticket aspirant Hoodi Vijaya Kumar's supporters asked why Manjunath's followers were on the stage.

They claimed to have been working for the party for several years, and alleged that those who had joined the party recently are sitting on the stage. This resulted in a heated altercation in the presence of Venugopal and Chandra Reddy.

They tried to pacify their supporters, who began raising slogans. Speaking to TNIE, a senior BJP leader from Malur said former minister Krishnaiah Setty had won from Malur on a BJP ticket. "The party has grown in the constituency, but there is no unity among senior leaders and workers," he said.

Guttedar brothers vie for tickets in Afzalpur

RAMAKRISHNA BADSESHI
@ Kalaburagi

CRACKS between BJP leaders of Afzalpur taluk has appeared in public. On one side there is a BJP faction led by Nitin Guttedar and Satish Guttedar, pitted against that of their elder brother and former minister Malikaiah Guttedar.

Nitin and Malikaiah are contenders for Afzalpur constituency ticket. Malakaiah has claimed that he has the required experience and expertise to get the ticket. He said that if he is given the ticket, Nitin and all BJP workers have to support him.

On Thursday, Nitin and Satish held a meeting in Kalaburagi. Later, Nitin said Malikaiah had assured him in the 2018 Assembly elections that he would be getting the ticket next time. "My elder brother must keep his word," he said. Nitin and Satish said that Guttedar family members, except for Malikaiah, have decided to vote for Nitin, who has been ZP president of Kalaburagi. "If BJP high command ignores our demands, over 5,000 followers of Guttedar family will meet again, and decide on whether to field Nitin as an independent candidate," Satish said.

Supporters raise slogans for leaders, ministers take chopper

BELUR: Union Ministers Pralhad Joshi and Shobha Karandlaje were upset over alleged tussle among supporters of ticket aspirants in Belur on Thursday. They refused to accompany the Vijay Sankalpa Yatra roadshow to Sakleshpur via Arehalli and Bikkodu hoblies of the same taluk, and instead took a chopper, avoiding Arehalli and Bikkodu. Supporters of HK Suresh, Siddesh Nagendra, Koratagere Prakash and Santosh Kenchamba incessantly raised slogans in favour of their leaders in Halebid and Belur during warning from senior leaders. Supporters of HK Suresh and Siddesh Nagendra also exchanged heated remarks. The police dispersed the workers. Earlier, the rally had begun two hours late.

Poll goodies: Irate villagers burn sarees

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chikkamagaluru

ENRAGED over elected representatives turning a blind eye to their problems in the past five years, people burnt the sarees gifted to them by aspirants keen on contesting the coming assembly elections, at Bhaktarahalli and Mallenahalli villages in Chikkamagaluru taluk on Tuesday evening. The incident took place in the presence of BJP workers who distributed sarees in these villages.

A youngster, who set the sarees on fire, alleged that the local MLA did not bother to solve the problems faced by the people of his constituency and now he is trying to lure them by giving gifts.

"Basic amenities have not been provided and no effort made to redress our grievances. Now, by distributing sarees, they are insulting our women. During the pandemic, we were in need of food. Those who could not arrange even one kg of rice then have now come begging for votes It is shameful. We are not so poor that we can't buy sarees. Can we sell our votes for a saree which costs less than Rs 100?" a villager said.

A video of the incident has gone viral on social media.

CM for social audit of welfare schemes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday said that there is a need for a social audit of effective implementation of various welfare schemes for all sections of society.

He was speaking after inaugurating a function to distribute various benefits to SC beneficiaries. The CM said all should introspect to know how it has been able to fulfil the dreams of Dr BR Ambedkar and such introspection must happen once in 10 years.

Dr Ambedkar ensured rights to the oppressed classes and brought them to the mainstream by empowering them with education and jobs.

He said only a few have benefited from reservation. Poor people living in villages and slums are not aware of reservation. Those responsible for not taking the reservation benefits to the needy should introspect, he added.

He said the government has plans to construct hostels in Bengaluru, Mysuru, Kalaburgi and Hubballi-Dharwad for students from SC/ST and OBC communities.

Nadda woos B'luru voters, stresses on Foxconn plant

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BJP national president JP Nadda tried to win over India's IT capital, which has 28 Assembly seats, and spoke in Hindi and English. He highlighted that manufacturer of iPhones, Foxconn has assured Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai that they would set up a plant in the city.

Speaking at BJP's Vijay Sankalp Yatra at KR Puram, Nadda went all out to convince the electorate that "BJP is the only party that favours comprehensive development".

"Bengaluru is one of the fastest growing cities. People should keep in mind that Foxconn will come here. Karnataka holds great significance for this country in terms of spirituality, science and technology. Being the IT capital, it has its own pool of talent and innovations," he observed.

He recalled that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had inaugurated Terminal-2 of Kempegowda International Airport, unveiled the 108-foot statue of Nadaprabhu Kempegowda, and also inaugurated the HAL chopper manufacturing facility in Tumakuru.

Turning the tables on Congress and JDS, who have been cornering the saffron camp on corruption, Nadda pilloried both the parties, calling them two sides of the same coin when it comes to corruption and dynastic politics. His response comes at a time when Channagiri BJP MLA Madal Virupakshappa and his son Prashanth have put BJP in a tight spot after Lokayukta raid, while state Law Minister JC Madhuswamy has admitted the episode as an embarrassment for the government.

"Some Congress leaders are on bail. JDS and Congress are like bhai-bhai. Voting for JDS is same as voting for Congress," he claimed.

Nadda credited the incumbent CM Basavaraj Bommai and his predecessor BS Yediyurappa for the state's tremendous development.

Request to install Kammanna's idol at Hubballi Idgah rejected

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hubballi

CITING law and order issue due to VVIP visit, the Hubballi-Dharwad Municipal Corporation (HDMC) has refused to give permission to install Kammanna idol at Idgah Maidan, which was recently renamed as Rani Chennamma Maidan. Rani Chennamma Maidana Gajanana Utsava Mahamandal had sought permission to install the idol for Holi.

Before taking the decision, HDMC commissioner B Gopalakrishna and Hubballi-Dharwad police commissioner Raman Gupta had a meeting with the members of Mahamandal and leaders of other Hindu outfits. HDMC Commissioner Gopalkrishna said that the application was refused because the Mahamandal sought permission on March 7 for the installation programme on March 9. There was lack of time for city administration to undertake adequate measures, especially security arrangements.

Moreover, Prime Minister Narendra Modi is visiting the twin cities on March 12, and security has to be deployed in advance all along the VVIPs movement and the places they would be visiting.

Police Commissioner Raman Gupta said that if the Mahamandal had requested a fortnight back, they could have mobilise additional force. Seeking permission from the higher-ups for additional force in such a short span is not possible, he said.

Mahamandal president Sanjeev Badaskar told TNIE that the request has been denied, citing the prime minister's visit, but they are yet to get it in writing.

On Wednesday, Hubballi-Dharwad Mayor Iresh Anchatgeri suggested that the commissioner should give permission to Mahamandal to install the idol, but the latter refused to take any decision due to VVIP visit and other law and order compulsions. Since, the corporation commissioner is the owner of the land, his permission is mandatory for any programme other than for prayers by Muslims twice a year.

Misuse of social media a concern for Congress

THE party expressed concern over distribution of TV sets, pressure cookers, sarees and other gifts and misuse of social media and urged the Commission to take action and direct the government not to invite tenders for development projects as there are allegations of corruption.

The ruling BJP urged the Commission to hold elections in a single phase and take action against unrealistic pre-poll promises by some parties.

Senior BJP leader and former MLC Ashwathnarayan Gowda said the party urged the Commission to identify sensitive and hypersensitive booths and tighten security there. The BJP delegation appealed to the Commission to shift officers working in the same place for many years.

The officers reviewed the Police Department's preparedness for polls and held a review meeting with Chief Electoral Officer Manoj Kumar Meena. Several suggestions and directions were given to him by the Commission. On Friday, the Commission will hold a meeting with district election officials and superintendents of police.

MLA's son named accused number 1 in new FIRs

IN the new FIRs registered under Sections 7 (a) (b), 8, 9 and 10 of the Prevention of Corruption Act on March 8, Prashanth has been named as accused No. 1, sources said.

The other accused named in the FIRs are Albert Nicholas, Gangadhar and Siddesh, executives of two private companies which got tenders from KSDL. Sources said that Nicholas and Gangadhar were executives of a leading fragrance and flavour company. They were allegedly found with Rs 45 lakh each, which was part of Rs. 1.62 crore seized from Prashanth before he was arrested along with them at his private office on March 2.

Siddesh was also found with Rs. 40 lakh. The company to which he belongs is yet to be known and the probe is on, sources said.

Apart from these four accused, the FIRs stated that some officials of KSDL have been arraigned as accused. The two FIRs have been registered based on a report submitted by the investigation officer in the first FIR, sources said.

Meanwhile, CM Basavaraj Bommai said, "Lokayukta is free to do its work, and it would submit the details of the raid before the court."

KTR questions Centre, agencies for targeting Oppn

Says BRS' Kavitha will cooperate with ED

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Hyderabad

BRS working president and Telangana IT Minister KT Rama Rao alleged that Gautam Adani was a 'benami' of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Speaking to reporters for the first time on the ED summons to MLC K Kavitha on Thursday, Rama Rao said that his sister would cooperate with the investigating agency. "The BRS MLC is a law-abiding citizen and will face the ED probe," he said.

"My point is they are using these agencies as tools to harass opposition parties and I have evidence to back it. Prove me otherwise. Modi calls himself the cleanest man. Let him come out and take a lie detector test in front of the country and tell the entire country that he is not Adani's proxy," he claimed.

Stating that during the Modi regime, the ED filed as many as 5,422 cases in the country, but only 23 were convicted. "The public lost Rs 13 lakh crore due to Adani's scam and the Prime Minister was not responding to it. The Finance Ministry found fault with allotment of six airports to Adani," Rama Rao pointed out, saying that no case was registered against the industrialist. He alleged that a tailor-made policy was prepared for Adani to acquire six airports. "Is it not a scam?," he asked. Even though the ED stated that Y Sujana Chowdary was involved in a Rs 6,000-crore bank fraud, no action was taken as the former MP joined the BJP, he alleged.

"The BJP is using the ED to destroy democracy in the country," Rama Rao alleged and reeled out the number of cases filed against leaders of opposition parties. According to him, the ED filed cases against the Congress (24), TMC (19), NCP (11), Uddhav Thakeray-led Shiv Sena (8), DMK (6), BJD (6), RJD (5), BSP (5), SP (5), AAP (3), INLD (3), YSRCP (3) and CPM (2). He said that 95 per cent of ED cases were registered against the Opposition and not even a single one against BJP leaders. The BRS working president said that several cases of ED, CBI or IT were filed against ministers or their followers, MPs, MLCs and MLAs in the state.

Swapna claims death threat from CPM secy's 'negotiator'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kochi

GOLD smuggling accused Swapna Suresh on Thursday alleged that she received death threat from a man claiming to be a representative of CPM state secretary M V Govindan. In a Facebook Live video, Swapna, who is in Bengaluru, claimed one Vijay Pillai met her in a hotel in Whitefield on March 4 on the pretext of taking her interview. In the meeting, Vijay claimed he was engaged by Govindan to negotiate, Swapna said.

"Vijay Pillai said a group had been formed to finish me off. He said the team will ensure I am either killed or put behind bars. He also said the team was trying to send me to jail for three years. It was a clear threat to my life," Swapna claimed.

According to Swapna, Vijay demanded that she hand over all the evidence related to the gold smuggling case and settle down in either Jaipur or Haryana. "He offered me ₹30 crore for it. He said they were also willing to help me settle down in Malaysia or the UK where I could begin my life anew. He said they would provide me a fake passport within a month to go to either country and after that none should know about my whereabouts," Swapna alleged.

She said Vijay had contacted her posing as a lawyer and had sought to interview her for his channel 'Action OTT'. She said she went to Hotel Zuri in Whitefield with her two children and Sarith, another accused in the gold smuggling case.

"Vijay Pillai started by requesting that I share all the evidence, including voice clips and pictures. Soon, he started listing the challenges I would face if the story is published," Swapna said.

According to her, Vijay also claimed that Lulu Group chairman Yusuffali M A would harm her as he had been served a notice by the Enforcement Directorate. "Vijay told me that Yusuffali has shares in all airports in Kerala and can put me in jail by placing a contraband in my luggage," she alleged, adding that Vijay also asked her to apologise to people for making false allegations. "I understood that my death is certain. However, I am not ready for any compromise. Pinarayi Vijayan is trying to sell the state to build a business empire for his daughter. I will continue my fight and expose him," she said.

Swapna said she had submitted a complaint with the help of her lawyer Krishna Raj to Karnataka Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, the home minister, DGP and the ED regarding the threat to her life. Raj later shared photos of the meeting and claimed the person who met her was Vijesh Keyilleth, a businessman in Kannur.

LAND ISSUES A REASON FOR FIRE INCIDENTS IN KODAGU FORESTS

PRAJNA GR @ Madikeri

OVER 200 km of fire lines have been drawn across the forest in Kodagu to protect against accidental fires. Fire incidents are being reported regularly across forest fringes, and land issues are seen as an underlying reason for them.

Over 100 acres of grassland have been lost in the past week in accidental fires across the district. Failure of the administration in handing over C&D land to the forest department can be analysed as one of the reasons for the increasing fire incidents in the district.

The lands that were affected in the past are similar to the forest region, but are not designated forest areas, though they are C&D lands that are not in possession of the forest department. With no fire lines drawn in these regions, they are prone to fire during summer, even as several species of wildlife face the brunt. Further, as per court orders, the district administration has to handover more than 11,000 hectares of C&D land to the forest department. This extent of land has to be transferred to the forest department to compensate for the forest land that was utilised for the rehabilitation of residents during the construction of the Harangi reservoir. However, sources confirmed that only 4,500 acres of C&D land has been handed over to the department even as it has put forth consistent requests to the administration to hand over remaining land. Experts opine that this is one of the underlying reasons for increased fire incidents reported across under-maintained government lands.

An image of a forest fire reported in Kodagu in the past week.

"We are unable to take precautionary steps to control forest fires in non-designated forest areas, as these lands are not under our possession. Further, there is an increased hue and cry by several residents who do not allow us to draw fire lines across encroached lands adjoining the forest area," shared Chief Conservator of Forests BN Murthy.

While a few fire incidents have been accidental, many others are work of miscreants. Sources confirmed that residents are also involved in lighting up grasslands to clear the area. "Among the fire incidents reported so far, only Dubare forest area comes under the Reserve Forest category. We have identified a few miscreants who are involved in lighting fire in government lands. Cases have been booked, but arrests are yet to be made," he confirmed. Without the handing over of the C&D land to the forest department, fires would be reported in the dry season, even as they are threatening the ecosystem, even as experts opine that loss of vegetation will lead to landslides in the near future.

John wanted to preserve Hampi's beauty, says scion

"JOHN FRITZ used to pitch a tent near Kamal Mahal in the late 1980s and used to have lengthy discussions with my father about preserving the beauty of Hampi. His death is a big loss," Krishnadevaraya added.

Krishnadevaraya said John visited him in 2019.

"We had a long discussion about preserving his works on Hampi under one roof. In fact, I shared this idea with the government and also demanded that John gives us the copies of his works. Now, his works are at the British Library.

We hope to bring the photo copies of his works once the project to bring all works on Hampi under one roof takes shape," he added.

Dear Sir/Madam,

SUB: 30 DAYS NOTICE FOR EXERCISING THE RIGHT OF REDEMPTION UNDER SECTION 13 (8) OF THE SARFAESI ACT, 2002 READ WITH RULE 8(6) OF THE SECURITY INTEREST (ENFORCEMENT) RULES, 2002.

To comply with the preposition laid down by the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Hyderabad for the State of Telangana and the State of Andhra Pradesh, by giving 30 days separate notice to the mortgagor to redeem the secured Assets, before the date of publication of Sale notice, this notice is issued.

As you are aware, the Authorised Officer of Canara Bank, Amalapuram Branch had issued Demand Notice on 21.10.2022, demanding you to pay an amount of Rs.1,22,50,596/- (Rupees One Crore Twenty Two Lakhs Fifty Thousand Five hundred and Ninty Six only) and interest stated thereon in the loan account of M/s Narasimha Varma Aqua Farms.

Since you have failed to repay the amount mentioned in the above said demand notice, the authorized Officer of Canara Bank had taken symbolic/physical possession of the secured assets described in Possession Notice dated 31/01/2023 and published the Possession Notice in Eenadu (Telugu), Kannada Prabha (Kannada) & Indian Express (English) Newspapers on 04/02/2023 in terms of the Act.

You are hereby given a last and final opportunity to discharge the liability of Rs.1,22,50,596/- (Rupees One Crore Twenty Two Lakhs Fifty Thousand Five hundred and Ninty Six only) plus subsequent interest, costs and expenses in full as stated in the Demand Notice dated 21/10/2022 within 30 days from the date of this notice, and reclaim the assets which have been possessed by the bank, failing which the sale notice will be published in the news paper specifying one of the following modes mentioned below: (a) By obtaining quotations from the persons dealing with similar secured assets or otherwise interested in buying assets ; or (b) By inviting tenders from the public; or (c) By holding public auction including through e-auction mode; or (d) By private treaty.

As per Section 13 (8) of the SARFAESI Act, you are entitled to redeem the secured Assets at any time before the date of publication of sale notice in the news papers, failing which your right to redeem the property as per Section 13(8) shall stand extinguished. This is without prejudice to any other rights available to the Bank under the subject Act/ or any other law in force.

OPPN ALLIANCE COULD BE HEADING FOR A POINT OF NO RETURN IN TN

Just a year ahead of the general elections, the alliance between the AIADMK and BJP has landed in hostile terrain in Tamil Nadu. While the pot has been boiling for some time, the latest trigger is the defection of a dozen second-rung leaders of the BJP to the Dravidian fold. The former chief minister, Edappadi K Palaniswami, technically the sole head of the AIADMK now, has been mum on the issue, but BJP state chief K Annamalai issued a threat reminding everyone of Newton’s third law of ‘equal and opposite reaction’, impelling many political observers to believe that the cracks in the alliance have widened beyond repair. While AIADMK is busy undertaking a SWOT analysis on the alliance and evaluating the potential outcome if it were to eject the BJP out, the onus of pulling the coalition back from the brink of collapse seems to have fallen on the broad shoulders of the saffron party. On the same day that BJP cadres irately burned pictures of EPS, Annamalai stated that there is no friction with the AIADMK.

After winning legal battles against ex-CM O Panneerselvam in the Supreme Court and the Madras High Court, EPS is slowly but decisively rebuilding the party to challenge DMK’s predominance post-MK Stalin’s coronation in May 2021. His recent strategies ensured that the alliance fielded a common candidate in the recently concluded Erode East bypoll, who polled a critical 44,000 votes against an anticipated DMK alliance sweep. This is despite the alliance leaders never sharing a stage while canvassing for the common candidate; the absence of camaraderie was palpable. The Election Commission of India’s diktat may have forced EPS to toe the ‘alliance’ line to ensure that the two-leaves symbol is not frozen as OPS, too, had staked a claim for it. On its part, the unsuccessful experiment to go solo while maintaining a friendly tie with AIADMK in the urban local body polls in February 2022 may have forced BJP to play second fiddle to the AIADMK’s plan. Finishing as the third-largest party with a paltry 5.4% vote share doesn’t help if you can’t win numbers.

The road ahead for the alliance is paved with multiple challenges. Many in the AIADMK believe that the BJP is a liability and that the alliance can do much better without having a truck with the national party. If they insist that the AIADMK sans the BJP can attract other smaller parties and disgruntled elements from the DMK, the BJP may be forced to go it solo again.

DON’T DERIDE MUSLIMS, DEBATE WOMEN’S RIGHTS

At a time when equal rights is the buzzword, it’s only appropriate that laws that perpetuate gender inequality be subjected to scrutiny and reformation. Coinciding with this Women’s Day, some women’s collectives in Kerala launched a campaign to make the Muslim Personal Law in India more female-friendly. They are holding a series of conferences to highlight the deep-rooted biases and struggles that women in the community go through to claim their rights. The demand for reformation, which had remained as whispers in some corners, hogged the limelight after C Shukkur, a prominent lawyer, and his academician wife, Dr Sheena, decided to go for a re-marriage under the Special Marriages Act to circumvent the provisions of the Muslim inheritance laws and ensure that their three daughters get their entire property.

According to the existing Muslim Personal Law, one-third of the share of a father’s property would go to his brothers if he doesn’t have a male child. Women’s groups feel the law is loaded against women and the spirit of the Quran’s teachings. They argue that many Muslim countries have changed personal laws without challenging the basic sanctity of Sharia.

However, many Muslim organisations in Kerala watch the developments with suspicion and fear. They believe that the stage is being set for implementing the Uniform Civil Code, and the recent developments align with the trend of attacking everything that is Islamic. They are planning a counter-campaign involving top leaders from the community. But, the women’s organisations have made it clear their intention is not to seek a Uniform Civil Code. They only want some changes in the existing laws to make them more gender-sensitive, as in the case of Hindu and Christian succession acts. While political parties understandably stay away from the debate, community leaders should treat this as an opportunity for a healthy discussion. The forces that vitiate the atmosphere must be kept at bay. The genuine concerns raised by the women’s organisations need to be addressed, and at the same time, all efforts should be made to respect religious sentiments. The elements that see the current discussions as an opportunity to deride the community should be isolated. A situation should be created for scholarly deliberations that dispassionately examine the issues involved.

QUICK TAKE

FAIR SHAKE FOR NEET READINESS

Madhya Pradesh reserves specific medical seats for students of government schools, joining TN and Odisha. The spirit behind the decision is understandable, but is increasing quotas the only solution? States recognise that caste discrimination apart, government school students are also deprived of professional teachings like in private schools and costly pre-medical coaching. These students opt for government schools just because they cannot afford the fees. Instead of more quotas, the governments must provide a level playing field to students from economically poor sections by making pre-medical coaching affordable, highly subsidised or free. That way, merit doesn’t get diluted by quotas, either.

As a consequence of the rising importance of conference diplomacy, the American concept of the “revolving door” in statecraft has come to be accepted in India now

GLOBAL STRATEGISTS TALKING THEIR WAY TO INDIA

K P NAYAR
Strategic Analyst

Unheralded and without fanfare, India is emerging as a conference superpower. In the year of the G20 in New Delhi, the process of consolidating India’s position as a global conference organiser on an infinite range of themes—from technology and climate action to geopolitics and geoeconomics—will gain further consolidation, bringing collateral benefits to many aspects in the country’s destiny.

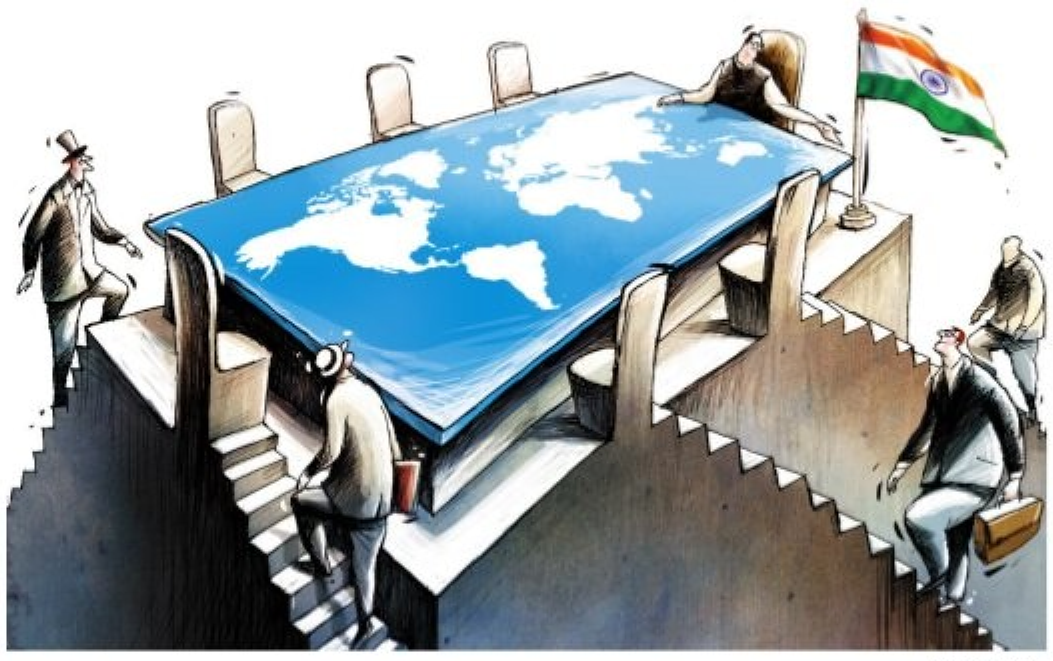
A fortnight ago, in Pune, Infosys founder N R Narayana Murthy was virtually mobbed at a geoeconomic conference for selfies with the celebrated entrepreneur. In the crowd, which wanted to be photographed with Murthy, were two finance ministers from abroad. Murthy had just finished a freewheeling “fireside chat”, touching on every possible subject of interest to a large audience at the Asia Economic Dialogue (AED), organised by the Ministry of External Affairs along with the Pune International Centre, and inaugurated by India’s top political diplomat, S Jaishankar.

The AED was convening physically after a gap of three years, interrupted by the pandemic, when it was held virtually: it was not the same either in impact or in influence, although last year, corporate titan Mukesh Ambani had taken the role remotely that Murthy did in person this year. At the AED in 2021, industrialist Kumar Mangalam Birla filled that role, also virtually.

“We are hoping to be the Davos of the East, eventually,” says Gautam Bambawale, convenor of the AED, former ambassador to China and Bhutan and high commissioner to Pakistan. Davos, where the World Economic Forum has been held with world political leaders in attendance since 1974, has shaped global industry and economic agendas significantly. “Our aim is to bring thought leaders in industry, government and the academia from all over the world, along with India, to Pune to brainstorm.”

The MEA’s Policy Planning and Research Division is in overdrive this year, organising a plethora of international conferences either directly or by supporting Indian think tanks which take the lead in putting together conclaves.

The year 2016 was when India embarked on a long-term plan to regularly bring global decision-makers and influencers to its shores via the conference route. That year, the first Raisina Dialogue was hosted in New Delhi by India’s foreign secretary and the chairman of the Observer Research Foundation as a small talking shop.



SOUMYADIP SINHA

The latest Dialogue in this series last weekend has grown into a behemoth: the four Quadrilateral Security Dialogue (Quad) foreign ministers, the Russian foreign minister and the Italian and Indian prime ministers addressed the eighth Raisina Dialogue, which dominated news headlines for three days.

The Global Technology Summit last November in New Delhi, organised jointly by the MEA and Carnegie India, also began in 2016. Its focus has been on the changing nature of technology and geopolitics, with the sub-text of how India can garner advantage from bringing together industry experts, scientists, policymakers and other stakeholders from the world over. Around the same time, the AED was conceived as a flagship event to prepare India to deal with the emerging international trading system, post-Covid global trade and finance dynamics, and resilient global growth in a post-pandemic world. This year’s theme for this conference was ‘Asia and the Emerging World Order’. The MEA describes the annual India-US Forum as “the most consequential annual gathering dedicated to India-United States of America cooperation”. It is convened by the MEA and the Ananta Centre, a leadership development and open dialogue policy forum in New Delhi. India’s drivers of conference diplomacy have lately been quick to step into new opportunities as changing global circumstances throw them up. Thus, the Indian Ocean Conference was launched in 2016 with yet another think tank, the India Foundation. This annual conference is the only Indian global conclave that is always held abroad, in an Indian Ocean country.

Meanwhile, there is a twist in the tale within India’s internal diplomacy as a result of this aggressive promotion of international conferences within the country. The MEA’s Policy Planning and Research Division has become a coveted posting for younger, middle-level diplomats.

The reason is not far to seek: its most famous joint secretary ever was K R Narayanan in 1969, who eventually rose to be president. The present foreign secretary, Vinay Kwatra, and an incumbent MEA secretary, Saurabh Kumar, were both joint secretaries for Policy Planning along the way in their careers. Chokila Iyer, India’s first woman foreign secretary, also held this job. The incumbent joint secretary is Sumit Seth, who has successfully shepherded the most number of global Indian conferences in history.

As a consequence of the rising importance of conference diplomacy, the American concept of the “revolving door” in statecraft has come to be accepted in India now. This concept in the US involves experts and specialists moving into the government in critical roles, and when the party in power changes, they return to think tanks or industry organisations or become pundits on television.

India’s most famous “revolving door” strategist has been Ajit Doval, the present National Security Adviser (NSA). He was director of the Intelligence Bureau, then founded the Vivekananda International Foundation (VIF), a think tank supportive of the BJP, and served as its director until his appointment as NSA soon after Narendra Modi became prime minister. The present director of VIF is Arvind Gupta who was deputy NSA during three years of Modi’s tenure. Before that, he was director general of the government think tank, the Manohar Parrikar Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses (IDSA), which ranks among the top 50 think tanks in the world. Via the revolving door, retired Ambassador Sujan Chinoy is the present director general of IDSA.

Another revolving door appointee is retired ambassador Vijay Thakur Singh, who is director general of the Indian Council for World Affairs, a think tank created through an Act of Parliament. Yet another government think tank in New Delhi is Research and Information System for Developing Countries, whose objective is capacity-building among developing countries. It has also been headed by eminent thinkers who came in through the revolving door.

INDIA CAN’T PUSH CORRUPTION DIRT UNDER CARPET ANY LONGER

SANDIP GHOSE
Current affairs commentator

The irony of corruption in public life is that everyone likes to talk about it, but no one does anything to stop it. Sociologically, it may have roots in the Darwinian theory, ‘Survival of the Fittest’. Human beings are willing to compromise on values to stay ahead in the evolutionary race, in which the powerful call the shots. Paradoxically, the law applies both to the perpetrator of corruption and the ones who are subjected to it. The corrupt want to accumulate power and wealth, which they believe will perpetuate their lineage in a world strapped of resources. Those who submit to corruption do it because in it they see the means of meeting self-preservation and existential needs. Thus, the cycle of life continues.

The problem, however, occurs when the principle of proportionality is violated. It happens when the asks are not commensurate to the value of benefits traded. While this rule applies to all walks of life, it is more visible in the case of political corruption. That is the inflection point that the country appears to be going through.

Corruption is not new to India. The frailties of human character have been well chronicled in scriptures, mythology, and folklore. Graft has existed since time immemorial. As the plaster is falling off the façade of our colonial past, we are discovering that the British were no paragons of financial integrity. Therefore, it would be inaccurate and unjust to assert that it is a feature of post-Independence India. Whether its scale and spread has increased in the past few decades can be the subject of another discussion—bits of it have been touched on by this writer in earlier columns. In the past, various innocuous labels have been applied to corruption—such as “speed money”—used by the Nobel Laureate and Swedish economist Gunnar Myrdal in this seminal book, Asian Drama. But the normalisation of large-scale corruption that seems to be happening is a more recent phenomenon. On the one hand, after every raid by the tax departments or central investigative agencies, we hear accusations of political “vendetta” in chorus, drowning the allegations. Similarly, the rare instance of a ruling party politician caught red-handed with money bags is quietly removed from headlines. This is a matter of concern. Because if society starts having an amoral view of corruption, then the slide of a nation will be irretrievable as we see among some of our South Asian neighbours.

Corruption is not new to India. The frailties of human character have been well chronicled in scriptures, mythology, and folklore

Narendra Modi came to power with the promise of “Na khaoonga, na khane dunga”. While the prime minister’s personal integrity remains above question, the jury is still out on the extent to which he has succeeded in reducing the level of corruption. The progress of investigations and rate of conviction in high-profile cases initiated by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) and Enforcement Directorate (ED) do not inspire much confidence in the public to believe that there has been any substantive change in this situation. It will be disingenuous to say that corruption has been curtailed in BJP-ruled states and is a phenomenon limited to states where the opposition is in power. Karnataka has been hogging attention recently with elections round the corner, but the situation on the ground in other states may not be vastly different. Level and extent may vary but corruption remains a part of our national leitmotif.

Economists and political pundits believe that it will not be possible to eradicate corruption till a solution can be found for funding of elections. They are probably right. However, even they do not have a solution to the problem. Suggestions for state funding of elections is utopian, to put it mildly. Legitimising political donations was a minuscule beginning. The much-maligned Electoral Bonds (EBs) was a step in the right direction. Though far from foolproof, it is certainly a cleaner method of mobilising funds rather than black money transferred through hawala and suitcases. Often the system of fundraising in the US is cited as the gold standard. But even the US and European nations are not without flaws and are open to manipulation by big businesses in nexus with dodgy politicians.

Unfortunate as it might be, if corruption is systemic, people tend to accept it as a way of life and businesses factor it in costs of projects and operations. However, matters go out of hand when there is rent-seeking and extortion. Worse still is when public money is siphoned off and welfare schemes do not reach the beneficiaries. It borders on criminality when poor people are forced to shell out money for jobs, education, and even primary healthcare. Allocation of national resources—be it minerals or telecom bandwidth—to cronies for a price creates economic disparities, destroys level playing fields, discourages free markets and competition, and deters foreign investors. Ultimately, it is the citizens who must fund write-offs of public sector bank loans or pay higher taxes. Above all, it trades off the future of our children by holding up economic progress and development.

The problem is complex and there cannot be a “one size fits all” solution. There must be different strokes for different people as it were. Liberalisation, simplification of laws and digitisation to promote transparency, ease of living and ease of doing business are surely part of the solution towards which the present government has taken some rapid and decisive strides. However, the crying need is for police and judicial reforms, and independence of investigative agencies with clear accountability in order to ensure speedy justice and conviction. Alas, politics comes in the way. That is where people must seek accountability of our politicians. For that, one needs the next level of electoral reforms. Till then, naming and shaming is the only way. Arguably, raids and investigation achieve that to some extent even if it is used as a tool by ruling dispensations. One cannot throw the baby out with the bath water in fear of media criticism. That is what Narendra Modi appears to be trying to do.

India and fascism

Kajal Basu’s Defining fascism in the Indian context (Mar 9) has eruditely brought out a historical perspective, but his parenthetical conclusion that proponents of saffronism are contemplating a georeligious expansionism is hyperbolic and incorrect. If the saffronites are talking of Hinduism, it’s only to protect it from the insidious and orchestrated campaign against it by a number of monied forces across the world.

Safe only if you’re rich

Apropos of Cash haul from MLA embarrasses BJP in poll-bound Karnataka (Mar 9). Whenever tainted political leaders are caught red-handed by the investigation agencies, supporters gather and sloganeer against government agencies. The editorial is spot on in highlighting the discrimination against the common man in the justice delivery system. The citizen is forced to think that the country is for the rich, by the rich and of the rich.

Bribery galore

Corrupt BJP MLA Madal got a grand welcome in his constituency. It’s ironic that he poses as innocent. It is pertinent to note that the Lokayukta also caught his son Prashanth red-handed taking a ₹40 lakh bribe on behalf of his father. It seems like a clear case but should be dealt with carefully since the BJP is involved.

Get rid of archaic laws

Apropos of Muslim couple get married again; hubby slams fatwa (Mar 9). That the Darul Huda Islamic University questioned Shukkur-Sheena by way of a fatwa is despicable. There is a need for the Uniform Civil Code to be enshrined in the Constitution and to end medieval laws prevailing in the country.

Menstrual hygiene in prisons

Apropos of Prisons fare poorly in menstrual hygiene (Mar 8). Inmates’ menstrual health is conveniently excluded from the conversation as they are treated as outcasts. A prisoner is a human being too and entitled to basic human rights. The government must ensure a safe environment and hygienic facilities in prisons.

Kochi is gasping for oxygen even a week after the plastic waste at Brahmapuram dumpyard caught fire. But the question lingers: Who is responsible? Passing the buck and blame games are the results of rampant corruption. Citizens feel cheated.

'IN TOUCH WITH STAKEHOLDERS ON PENSION SCHEME'

Jitendra Singh dons many hats – a medical doctor, a newspaper columnist, and a politician who is in-charge of several key portfolios, including PMO, in the Narendra Modi-led government. He takes questions on a range of issues – from BJP's scintillating performance in the recently concluded polls in three northeastern states to elections in Jammu and Kashmir. Excerpts from the 4th edition of Delhi Dialogue, from The New Indian Express

Jitendra Singh: I'm glad to be here, and I'm ready to respond to your questions.

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA: You are back from Gujarat, and there was a Kashmir festival there. Your party has come to power in Tripura, Nagaland and Meghalaya in alliances. The BJP is therefore entrenched in the northeast. When will we see your region, Jammu & Kashmir, in election mode?
Jitendra Singh: For the first part of your question on the northeast: I think it would be a case study of how PM Narendra Modi has transformed the BJP in the northeast. Indeed, a revolutionary transformation has taken place at different levels. There was a time when a government vehicle would be fired upon wherever it broke down, for example, in the Tura hills of Meghalaya. It's all over now. The largest credit for this turn-around goes to PM Modi, who has gone ahead with his personal outreach. I can say so because I was in charge of the northeast all those years. The PM must have visited the northeast not less than 55 times in the last five-six years. So that kind of outreach, coupled with the swift development of the region, has bought about the much-needed transformation. (According to the Indian Railways, the railway network in the country's northeastern states has been converted into a broad gauge. Between 2014 and 2017, a total of 972 km of track was converted into a broad gauge network. Except for Sikkim, the Indian Railways network now connects all of the North East states).

Similarly, you have an airport in every state capital of the region. We also have the first centre of excellence in citrus fruits (Mizoram), which has come up with technological assistance from Israel. That's about a state with a little over a million population with a representation of only one MP in the Lok Sabha. Nothing has held us back. So, that change of narrative has enabled the Prime Minister and the party to win over the trust of the people. Today, tourism and aviation sectors have employed a large number of youths from the northeast: board a flight to Hyderabad, Chennai or Kochi, and you'd find the crew from the northeast.

Over to the second part of the question about Jammu and Kashmir. I think the responsibility lies with the Election Commission of India to decide when to hold the election. As far as I'm concerned, the party that I belong to is the one where the karyakartas (party workers) are in election mode 24x7and and 365 days a year.

AMIT MUKHERJEE: In the G20 meeting on anti-corruption measures, any headway in dealing with fugitives and extradition?
Jitendra Singh: The very fact that we have sat together at such a high forum and spent three days discussing measures against corruption shows the seriousness of the matter. Until a few years back, such summits meant diplomatic matters about border disputes and things related to trade, business and commerce. Corruption, most importantly financial corruption, is a fundamental issue close to all societies. Therefore, we have a G20 position, plus more than ten other significant meetings. Therefore, you get a sense of seriousness among various parties and friends, all of them sharing a common concern about corruption. It took us some time to realise that offenders often adopt a common modus operandi: they commit a crime here, then go to a country where the law is more convenient or friendly and get away. Meanwhile, they also get the time to park their money. Each country has sets of laws, the exploitation of which was resorted to by criminals. The common concern is we are on the same page regarding adopting common procedures, including data sharing. That is a huge headway happening.

PREETHA NAIR: People from Ladakh were protesting at Jantar Mantar demanding jobs...
Jitendra Singh: The people should ponder why no such protest took place in 70 years.

This is because now they look at the Modi government as a responsive government. The first memorandum presented by them to make Ladakh a UT was submitted in 1948-49. Gradually fatigue set in. Eventually, this government responded to the demands and showed sensitivity. Earlier, those people were living in isolation, something like the northeast, as they hardly came to Delhi.

The level of aspiration has grown; they know the best place to protest is Jantar Mantar. This is a sign of the awakening and the credit for this goes to PM Modi. Of course, decisions should not be taken in haste.

PREETHA NAIR: The LG of Ladakh came eight times to Delhi to meet Union ministers...
Jitendra Singh: The LG is the proactive administrator who is focused on development works.

SHAHID FARIDI: Is the government is open to including Ladakh in the Sixth Schedule of the Constitution?
Jitendra Singh: I don't want to comment on the matter. The home ministry will take a call. They take a holistic view.

PREETHA NAIR: Some of the BJP-ruled states are demanding the implementation of the Old Pension Scheme. What is your take?
Jitendra Singh: I don't think there is any final word on this, as the new pension scheme came after due diligence, and a section of government employees is comfortable with it. Stakeholders across the country are in touch with us. We always take cognisance of everything. However, I will not be able to give sweeping, judgmental remarks because the inputs are coming from both sides.

Jitendra Chowbey: In line with Jai Jawan & Jai Kisan, if you look at the budget and the GDP ratio, it is 0.7%. How does the government plan to tackle the gap?
Jitendra Singh: I agree with you. The PM has given enough thought to research and development. We opened up the space innovation for private players which has led to mushrooming of startups in the sector. Similar initiatives were taken in the domain of atomic energy. For the first time, the Cabinet approved opening up the sector for joint venture on PPP model. I think all seven Independence Day addresses by the PM have talked about science.

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA: We've recently had this news that maybe Covid virus escaped from Wuhan, and it could have been a manmade virus that came and landed in the Wuhan wet market. How concerned are you about the possibility of biological warfare? What is India's stance?
Jitendra Singh: Talking as a science minister, I'm mandated to kill the virus, not to go back to the birth of the virus! I'm sure the Ministry of External Affairs and the Ministry of Defence would be taking cognizance of that and would be able to address that issue also.

SHAHID FARIDI: Is it true that Elon Musk wanted some permission to have his own satellite?
Jitendra Singh: I'm not going to comment on that... I'm not aware of that... maybe the aviation ministry would know.

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR: Your government puts a lot of effort into good governance. However, there is a wide gap between the sanctioned strength of civil servants and the imposed intake. Is there a balance being approached?
Jitendra Singh: They have a committee that decides the number of officers to be reduced. Gradually, this deficit happened not for this reason but also because of other reasons involving legacy. Sometime in the late 90s, there was a sudden realisation that we don't need so many officers. As a result, at the middle level, the joint secretary level and the other levels, we still have deficits. The government has tried to experiment with lateral entry to make up not only for the deficit but also to find out the best candidate for a given job.

SHAHID FARIDI: When will the drones be used to deliver pizzas in India?
Jitendra Singh: The first time our Bengaluru institute came out with a drone, the Covid pandemic had just set in. I personally went to at least three places to see a demonstration. We would put vaccine boxes of 2-4 kg onto the drone and make orders. The drone would go to the dispensary concerned, land on the top of the roof of the dispensary, and somebody would go and pick it up. It is not becoming a part of our natural behaviour. Otherwise, the technology is already there.

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA: How do you think the abrogation of Art 370 has impacted the people; what are the positives and the difficulties you are still facing?
UJWAL JALALI: (Adding to it): The BJP government has been vocal on Kashmiri Pandits. However, the community is yet to be back to the Valley, and we see target killings happening again...

Jitendra Singh: It was a nightmare, the biggest exodus ever happened within the country since 1947. There are two parts to it: one is the intent, and the other is the action. As far as the intent is concerned, even when the exodus happened in 1990, it was none other than the BJP that came to their rescue, though we didn't have the government at the centre nor at many places. Wherever we could exercise some influence... there were Murli Manohar Joshi and LK Advani who got their (Kashmiri Pandits) seats reserved in education in places like Maharashtra and Madhya Pradesh. Even now, if a headway has been made, it is only by the government led by Prime Minister Modi. We are making sincere efforts to ensure that they return and jobs are created for them in the Valley.

As far as targeted killings are concerned, there is no answer to that. There is no alibi for that. There is no explanation for that. A loss of life is irreparable.

However, overall, you have not had a single stone-throwing incident in several years, and you don't have militant-inspired hartals (shutdowns). Earlier, it was a modus operandi of the terrorists. If a Central leader visited the Valley, the shutdown call would come from Pakistan, and the shops would be shuttered in Srinagar. It is no longer the case now. You have the Home Minister visiting the Valley for 3-4 days, and you have Central leaders regularly visiting the Valley. In one year, we have had more than one crore tourists visiting J&K, and all hotels have been overbooked. Some legal intervention had to be made to check them. The entire J&K got exhausted, and even locals did not have a place in their houses to accommodate the tourists. There has been a sea change in the overall situation. The Kashmiri youth, including the Pandits, are highly aspirational compared to their peers from the other parts of the country. They were already in civil services.

The targeted killings reflect the simple fact that terrorists are on the run. Just to make some news, they target not only the Pandits but also labourers from Bihar. Gradually it will also go away because the last remnants of militancy are now done away with.

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA: Omar Abdullah was at one of our programmes in Chennai. Even he admitted that stone-pelting has stopped.
Jitendra Singh: I think the biggest evidence (of normalcy returning) is the Bharat Jodo Yatra that went on smoothly so comfortably that they (Congress leaders) were seen playing around with snow.

Then, the local body elections witnessed a 70-80% turnout. There was a time when voting was not even 10% in the Valley.

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA: Is any thought given to the full restoration of statehood?
Jitendra Singh: I think the Home Minister has already spoken on the floor of Parliament that it will happen at an "appropriate time." I need not add anything to it.

Albanese first foreign leader onboard indigenous carrier

MAYANK SINGH @New Delhi

REFLECTING the ascent in the India-Australia ties, Australian Prime Minister Anthony Albanese on Thursday became the first foreign dignitary to be accorded the guard of honour onboard the recently-commissioned INS Vikrant.

The Australian PM is on an official visit to India. He was received aboard the aircraft carrier by Navy Chief Admiral R Hari Kumar.

"Honoured to be on the newly-commissioned, Indian-designed and manufactured INS Vikrant at the invitation of PM Modi. My visit reflects my government's commitment to place India at the heart of Australia's approach to Indo-Pacific and beyond," PM Albanese said.

Both the countries have been unanimous with matters related to the Indo-Pacific region. "The Indian Ocean is central to both countries' security and prosperity," Albanese said.

Adding that both countries "depend on free and open access to sea lanes in the Indo-Pacific for trade and economic wellbeing," the Australian PM said, "we share an unwavering commitment to uphold the rules-based global order and ensure the Indo-Pacific is open, inclusive and prosperous."

There has been a rise in military engagements between the two countries. Saying that 2023 "will be busier than ever for our defence cooperation", Albanese said, "More important is the sheer complexity and high-end nature of our military engagements, which is unprecedented." He said.

Later this year, Australia will host the Exercise Malabar for the first time and India will – also for the first time – participate in Australia's Talisman Sabre exercise.

Row erupts over V-P staff in RS panels

NEW DELHI: The Congress on Thursday took strong exception to the appointment of Vice-President Jagdeep Dhankhar's staff to Rajya Sabha committees saying it was done without proper consultations.

V-P Dhankhar is also chairman of the Upper House of the Parliament.

Senior Congress MP Jairam Ramesh, taking to Twitter, said, "I chair a standing committee and I can categorically say I wasn't consulted at all."

Speaking at a book release, Dhankar said, "I got inputs from a few members and chairmen of committees to do something affirmative to improve productivity. So, I sharpened the human resource attached to committees," he said.

Uzbek deaths: Drugs watchdog alerts states against Delhi-based supplier

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @New Delhi

THE Drugs Controller General of India (DCGI) has issued an alert to licensing authorities in states and Union territories against the use of raw materials manufactured by Delhi-based Maya Chemtech India, which supplied ingredients for cough syrups, produced by Marion Biotech, that were linked to the death of 19 children in Uzbekistan.

The Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation (CDSCO) had earlier issued a notice to Marion Biotech asking it to stop the sale and distribution of two products, stating that the sample was found to be "not of standard quality".

Maya Chemtech was the main supplier of propylene glycol, which was used in the impugned batches.

Rajeev Singh Raghuvanshi, the new Drugs Controller General of India, has confirmed that out of 33 samples that were tested by CDSCO, 24 were found to be not of standard quality. "Out of these samples, 22 samples fall under the category of adulterated/spurious under Section 17A and 17B of the D&C (Drugs and Cosmetics) Act, 1940," he said in his letter.

The samples were collected by a joint team of Uttar Pradesh state and central drug controllers after Uzbekistan claimed that 18 children died after consuming a syrup manufactured by Marion Biotech.

"Accordingly, you are requested to instruct your enforcement officials to keep a strict vigil on the matter and take stringent action as per the provisions of the said Act and rules against the offenders in the public interest," he said.

Marion Biotech, a registered business company in Uzbekistan since 2012, exported Ambronol syrup and Dok-1 Max cough syrups to Uzbekistan. The company's licence was suspended on January 9 after it failed to reply to the state drug regulator's notice on violations of manufacturing practices at its production unit.

HUNTER-GATHERER LEARNING STYLE BENEFITS KIDS' EDUCATION

Paying more attention to hunter-gatherer childhoods would help improve education and well-being today, scientists have concluded | NIKHIL CHAUDHARY

Developing from the hunter-gatherer era to the modern times of all-round sophistication may be considered a significant technological and civilisational progress. But scientists from University of Cambridge suggest closely examining the processes that helped hunter-gatherer children learn to improve children's education today. They have concluded that paying more attention to hunter-gatherer childhoods would help improve education and well-being. They explored the benefits emerging out of a larger network of people involved in care-giving observed in hunter-gatherer communities that they studied in present-day Congo. They have suggested that to emulate the conditions and processes staff-to-child ratio in nurseries be increased to achieve optimal learning and well-being for the children. Besides, more peer-to-peer, active and mixed-age learning, as seen in hunter-gatherer communities, may help improve education for school children.

A BIG BREAKTHROUGH FOR SUPERCONDUCTING MATERIAL

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

A team of researchers from University of Rochester has made the historic achievement of creating superconducting material in ambient conditions — at temperature and pressure low enough for practical applications. The researchers reported creating a nitrogen-doped lutetium hydride (NDLH) that exhibits superconductivity at 20.55 degrees Celsius and 10 kilobars (1,45,000 pounds per square inch, or psi) of pressure. This is much lower than the temperatures and pressure earlier used, and is considered the ambient condition of superconducting material creation. This breakthrough will allow higher production of superconducting materials. These materials have two key properties: electrical resistance vanishes and magnetic fields that are expelled pass around the superconducting material. These materials enable power grids transmitting electricity without transmission loss up to 200 million megawatt hours of the energy; frictionless, levitating high-speed trains; more affordable medical imaging and scanning techniques such as MRI and magnetocardiography; faster, more efficient electronics for digital logic and memory device technology; and machines using magnetic fields to confine plasmas to achieve fusion as a source of unlimited power.

Sops & schemes galore in please-all Maha Budget

Devendra Fadnavis extendes largesse to farmers, women and other backward classes ahead of Lok Sabha and Assembly polls next year

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

MAHARASHTRA deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis, who holds the finance portfolio also, announced a slew of incentives and schemes in Budget 2023-24 in his attempt to keep all sections happy ahead Lok Sabha and State assembly elections next year.

Fadnavis said as India is moving towards a $5- trillion economy and Maharashtra aims to become a $1-trillion economy. The budget, presented in the assembly on Thursday, estimated a revenue deficit of ₹16,112 crore and ₹95,500.80 crore as a fiscal deficit. Using a digital gadget tab to read his budget speech, Fadnavis cited medieval period saint verses such as Saint Tukaram, Saint Dnyaneshwar to connect with the Bahujan masses. He said to boost state's share from 14.2 per cent to 20 per cent in national gross domestic product (GDP), the government has decided to give emphasis on infra creation that will result in comprehensive development of Maharashtra. The finance minister announced 'Namo Shetkari Mahasanman Nidhi' to supplement the Pradhan Mantri Krishi Samman Nidhi Yojana, conceived by PM Narendra Modi, with grants from the State.

"Maharashtra government will provide an additional amount of ₹6,000, along with ₹6,000 per farmer per year from the central government. In this way, an amount of ₹12,000 will be deposited in a farmer's account every year. This will benefit around 1.15 crore farmer families. We have earmarked a budget of ₹ 6,900 crore for this ambitious scheme," Fadnavis said. He further said that there is a provision to pay 2 per cent of the insurance premium by the farmer in the Pradhan Mantri Crop Insurance Scheme of 2016 by the Central government. "However, the insurance premium for their share will be paid by the state government itself. Farmers no longer bear this burden as well. Farmers can register on the Pradhan Mantri Crop Insurance Yojana portal by paying a nominal fee of ₹1. We have made the provision of ₹3,312 crores for this scheme," he added. "Under Mahatma Jyotirao Phule Shetkari Karjmukti Yojana, farmers who regularly repay short-term crop loans have been given an incentive of up to ₹50,000, which was announced in the last two budgets, but not distributed. Under this scheme, an amount of ₹4,683 crore has been directly disbursed to the bank accounts of 12.84 lakh eligible account holders by the end of February 15, 2023," he said. Finance minister said that the government has also proposed giving pipeline connections to 17,72,000 families under Jal Jeevan Mission that will cost ₹20,000 crore to the state exchequer. "A new scheme called Lek Ladki will be launched for girls. Besides, women will be given a 50 per cent discount on ticket fares in state-run buses," Fadnavis said.

On sticky wicket in state, BJP tries social engineering

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

AHEAD of the key Lok Sabha and state assembly elections, Maharashtra finance minister Devendra Fadnavis, who is also deputy CM, tried to do social engineering through his state annual budget 2022-23. Fadnavis, a top BJP leader, in his budget has tried to touch upon all communities by announcing schemes constituting the development co-operation boards. So, no one is left out in BJP's social engineering in Maharashtra like the state that elects the total 48 LS members, highest after Uttar Pradesh.

After toppling Uddhav Thackeray government and forming a new government with Eknath Shinde, BJP has got the power but politically it's on a sticky wicket. The majority of communities are alienated from it as seen in Kasabha Peth byelections which was won by Congress candidate Ravindra Dhangekar making inroads into the RSS-BJP bastion. Fadnavis announced 'Anandacha Shidha' that will be distributed to more than ₹1.63 crore families at a cost ₹473 crore on the occasion of Gudi Padwa--Ambedkar Jayanti.

Interestingly, the finance minister did not announce specific amount for the boards, but said adequate provision will be made for BARTI, Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj Research Training and Human Development Institute (SARATHI), Mahatma Jyotiba Phule Research and Training Institute (Mahajyoti), among others.

AAP to fight Cong, not BJP, in polls

With the Assembly polls in the state due later this year, AAP national convener Arvind Kejriwal and Punjab CM Bhagwant Mann have urged the people of Chhattisgarh to give a chance to their party. Delhi CM Kejriwal believes the contest will be bipolar between AAP and the ruling Congress. Amid the claims that the BJP has zero presence as an Opposition, both the CMs during their trip to Raipur, alleged that the natural resource-rich state was earlier looted by the BJP and now the Congress. AAP is often cited as making inroads into the states having good presence of Congress and dent the party's vote share.

AIIMS convocation: 850 students graduate

AIIMS Raipur is setting up an innovation centre for medical technology along with IIT Bhilai. AIIMS Director Dr Nitin M Nagarkar while presenting the progress report said that the institute has become a hub for research. However, on the first convocation of AIIMS Raipur, 850 students from medical and nursing have been awarded their degrees. Union MoS for Health and Family Welfare Dr Bharati Pravin Pawar, as the chief guest during the occasion, urged the students to dedicate themselves for the upliftment of the society as they enter their new phase of life.

Baghel allots ₹12 cr for Kaushalya Mahotsav

The Budget presented by CM Bhupesh Baghel has allotted ₹12 crore for Kaushalya (mother of Lord Ram) Mahotsav in Chandkhuri (Raipur district) for the preservation and promotion of Ramlila and Manas singing parties. The state government has renovated the magnificent 'Mata Kaushalya' temple under the ambitious project 'Ram Van Gaman Tourism Circuit' and has also earmarked Rs 12 crore for organising the 'International Ramayana Festival' that will apparently pave the way for Congress to cope with BJP's Ram Temple issue.

Santiniketan Trust draws PM's attention to V-C's 'obnoxious' remarks

PRONAB MONDAL @Kolkata

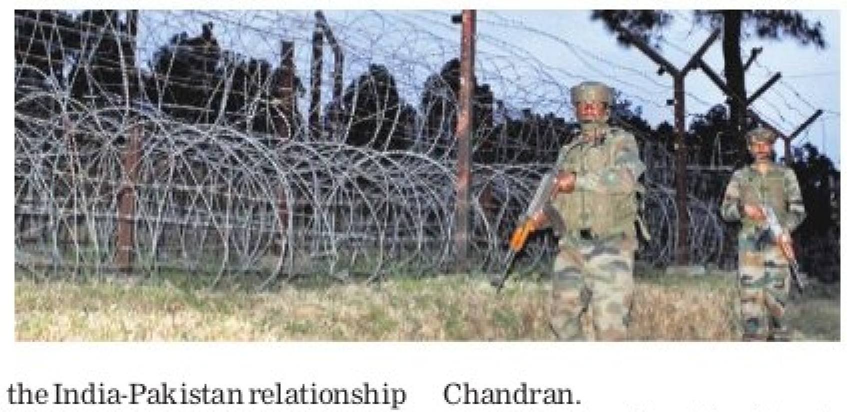
THE Santiniketan Trust, a charitable body founded by Rabindranath Tagore's father Maharshi Debendranath Tagore, has written a letter to PM Narendra Modi requesting his intervention to restrain Visva Bharati vice-chancellor Bidyut Chakrabarty from making ''obnoxious and derogatory remarks'' against old-timers on the campus and alumni.

The letter to Modi, who is the chancellor of Visva Bharati, reads: ''We being the trustees of the said Trust can't allow him (Chakrabarty) to use the platform of Upasana Griha (prayer hall) to insult and humiliate the Ashramiks (old-timers), alumni and local citizens. We appeal before your authority to restrain Bidyut Chakrabarty from doing obnoxious activities and from throwing remarks in abusive language in this Upasana Griha.'' The letter to Modi is said to be significant against the backdrop of the controversy in which Visva Bharati accused Nobel laureate Amartya Sen of occupying 13 decimal of lands at his ancestral home without authorisation which belonged to the central university.

The state government dismissed the varsity's claim after examining land records. CM Mamata Banerjee met Sen at his residence and handed him over documents related to the land. The letter, however, did not mention the row between Visva Bharati and Sen. In the letter to Modi, Anil Konar, honorary secretary of the trust, said he was prompted to write the letter after around 200 people, including old-timers, teachers, students, artisans and traders of Santiniketan gave a mass petition expressing their anguish against the VC.

EXPERTS QUESTION US REPORT, SAY NO IMMINENT THREAT TO INDIA-PAK TIES

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru



INDIA'S strategic experts have questioned the veracity of a recent US intelligence report that has raised concerns about the possibility of India retaliating against Pakistan in the event of a terror attack on India, under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Speaking to The New Indian Express, Dean of the School of Conflict and Security Studies at National Institute of Advanced Studies (NIAS), Bengaluru, Prof D Suba Chandran and retired Indian Foreign Service (IFS) officer and former Indian high commissioner to Pakistan Sharat Sabharwal said there has been a "status quo" in the India-Pakistan relationship after the Balakot strike in 2019, in response to the Pulwama carnage in which 40 CRPF personnel were martyred in a suicide attack by Jaish-e-Mohammed (JeM), the Pak-based banned terror group. There are no "imminent signs of war or military confrontation" between the two neighbours, they said.

"There has been no change in the India-Pakistan relationship in the last couple of years. It has neither improved nor deteriorated. India is not keen on a dialogue with Pakistan and vice-versa. In fact, India is keen on playing a major global role under the G20 Presidency and is looking at developing strategic and trade partnerships. Pakistan, on the other hand, is reeling under deepening economic, political and security crises along with border issues with Afghanistan, rising Baloch militancy, separatist movement resulting in large-scale disappearances, threat from the outlawed Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) and developments in Gwadar, where people fear it will become a Punjabi or Chinese town," said Chandran.

"I don't see the situation in Pakistan getting any better before the elections and change of government later this year. But, before that are the crucial provincial elections in Punjab and Khyber Pakhthunkhwa. Also, the economic situation in Pakistan is very bleak and the country is hoping for an International Monetary Fund (IMF) bailout. There is too much going on within Pakistan for it to engage with India," said Chandran.

Regarding the India-China relationship, the strategic expert said that post the Russia-Ukraine conflict, China wants to increase its defence expenditure. "China is more worried about Taiwan and the growing proximity between South Korea and Japan, than picking up a conflict with India," he added.

Sabharwal concurred with Chandran and said the Balakot airstrike "had sent a strong message to Pakistan that India has given up on strategic restraint and will give an appropriate response to any provocation by Pakistan. Since then there has been a status quo in the India-Pakistan relationship. Even China's response to Balakot was muted," said the former diplomat.

He added that US Intelligence reports may have concluded from India's response and pronouncement. "This doesn't mean that there is an imminent threat to India-Pakistan relationship. Pakistan has its hands full with economic, political instability, threat from Baloch militants and TTP, both of which are Pakistan's own creation. From a short-term perspective, the TTP can be seen as keeping Pakistan occupied, but in the long term, we have to be careful. A collapsed Pakistan will be no good for India," said Sabharwal.

Bommai sends team to study Gehlot's experiment with OPS

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

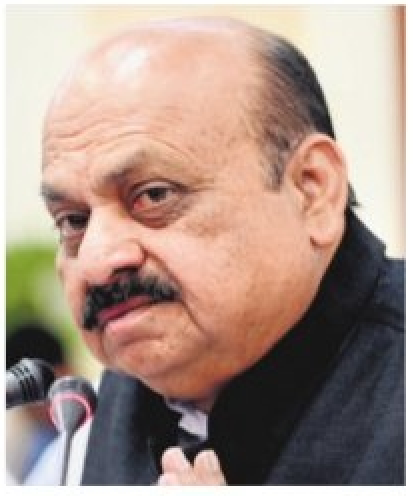
THE issue of restoring Old Pension Scheme (OPS) to government employees has forced a rethink on the BJP.

The BJP-led Karnataka government has formed a committee to study OPS which will visit Rajasthan this month. Rajasthan is the first state to restore the OPS.

The Karnataka development comes ahead elections of in the state. Later this year, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh will also go to polls. Considering the situation, it is expected that the BJP will soon clarify its stand on OPS in these states as well.

In case BJP decides to oppose the OPS as a general policy, then it could well become a big issue in the Lok Sabha elections to be held next year.

In Karnataka, government employees have been on a protest demanding restoration of OPS. Karnataka chief minister Basavaraj Bommai has now formed a special committee under the chairmanship of the state's Additional Chief Secretary to look into the issue.



Three IAS officers have been made members along with the ACS. This committee will soon visit Rajasthan. After Rajasthan, this committee will visit Chhattisgarh.

The Congress government in Chhattisgarh has also announced OPS for its government employees. Later, the Karnataka committee will visit Punjab, Himachal Pradesh and Jharkhand.

According to official sources in Rajasthan, the committee will meet chief secretary Usha Sharma, additional chief secretary, finance department, Akhil Arora, principal secretary to CM, Kuldeep Ranka.

The committee has to submit its report to the Karnataka government by April 30. It may be noted that the old pension scheme has become a major bone of contention and created a deadlock between the BJP regime at the Centre and the Rajasthan government.

In March-2022, chief minister Ashok Gehlot had implemented the old pension scheme in Rajasthan. Gehlot has been challenging the BJP many times, saying that if not today then tomorrow, PM Narendra Modi will also have to implement OPS in BJP's state governments and at the Center as well.

However, Union finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman has termed OPS as fatal for the economy. Sitharaman made it clear in a conversation with journalists in Jaipur last month that no amount will be given to Rajasthan out of the ₹45,000 crores deposited in the Center's trust under the New Pension Schemes (NPS).

Sitharaman's statement was considered a big setback to Gehlot's ambitious plan to abolish NPS and implement the OPS.

Valley sees 2.5L tourists in 1st 2 months this yr

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

WITH record over 2.5 lakh tourists visiting Kashmir in the first two months of this year, the Director of Tourism Kashmir is hopeful that Kashmir will witness a record bumper tourism season this year as they are expecting two to three times more tourist inflow to the Valley this year as compared to the last year.

Director of Tourism Kashmir Faz Lul Haseeb said that the overall tourism scene in Kashmir is good and a record over 2.5 lakh tourists visited the Valley in the first two months. He said the ski-tourist resort of Gulmarg in north Kashmir was packed while hotels in south Kashmir's Pahalgam resort, which used to be empty during winter, witnessed 70-80 per cent occupancy in the winter.

Haseeb said that all the tourism stakeholders in the Valley are upbeat about the tourist inflow and it is expected that tourist footfall will pick up with the onset of spring. He said if all goes well, the tourist footfall will be better than the last year. "Our effort is going in this direction and we are expecting a bumper tourist season this year. In fact, we are expecting two to three times more tourist inflow to the Valley this year as compared to last year," he added. An all-time high of over 2.7 million tourists including 3.6 lakh Amarnath yatris visited Kashmir last year.

With the onset of spring, the tourism department plans to hold spring festivals at the tourist resort of Yousmarg in central Kashmir, Badamwaer in Srinagar, and many other places in the Valley.

Asia's largest Tulip garden in Srinagar spread over 30 hectares of land will be thrown open to the public by the end of this month. The flower carpet of 15 lakh tulips of different varieties of colours and fragrances unique to Kashmir will be attracting tourists.

Director Tourism said they have already identified 75 offbeat tourist destinations in the Valley and each of these offbeat destinations is open. "We are trying to ensure basic infrastructure through homestays and tented colonies at these places until hotels are constructed there."

"We offer some of the best locations and best activities that tourists can indulge in. We want to keep tourists engaged at recreational sites. We are starting a weekly rock climbing event and it has been an instant hit. We will also be starting white water rafting and paragliding to add more attraction to the travellers visiting Valley," he said. According to Haseeb, Kashmir has a lot of potential, and offers a lot to tourists, including rock climbing, hiking, camping, angling, trekking, exploration and skiing (in winter). "It has everything and it is a beautiful and picturesque place," he added.

Asked whether foreign tourists are visiting Kashmir, he said, "Yes, of course. There were a significant number of arrivals of foreign tourists this year and last year too. We hope it will pick up further." The tourism department is planning to tap the South East Asian and European markets by holding tourism roadshows there to sell Kashmir as a "safe and secure tourism destination." The Bollywood filmmakers, Haseeb said, are also returning to Kashmir.

BLOOMING SEASON

- Over 2.5 lakh tourists visited the Valley between January and February this year
- Hotels in south Kashmir's Pahalgam and Gulmarg's ski resorts were 70-80 per cent full during the winter
- More than 2.7 million tourists, including 3.6 lakh Amarnath yatris had visited Kashmir last year
- In the Valley, 75 offbeat tourist destinations have already been identified by the tourism department
- Several Bollywood filmmakers are returning to Kashmir
- The largest Tulip garden in Asia will be opened this later month in Srinagar

> We have already identified 75 offbeat tourist destinations. We are trying to ensure basic infrastructure like homestays and tents are functional at these places —FAZ LUL HASEEB, Director Tourism Kashmir

6 KILLED IN LARGEST RUSSIAN STRIKES ON UKRAINE IN WEEKS

Knocks out power supply to Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant sparking meltdown fears

KYIV

THE largest Russian strikes on Ukraine in weeks killed at least six persons and caused power outages across the war-battered nation on Thursday. Kyiv's military downed nearly half of the missiles launched by Russia over at least 10 regions, as the fight raged on for control of the symbolic prize Bakhmut in Ukraine's east.

The deadly Russian barrage on Thursday struck the relatively peaceful Lviv region in Ukraine's west and left second-city Kharkiv without power, water or heating "The enemy fired 81 missiles in an attempt to intimidate Ukrainians again, returning to their miserable tactics," Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said.

People search the rubble of a house following a Russian strike in the village of Velyka Vilshanytsiaay near Lviv, Ukraine | AFP

For months, Russia has been pummelling key facilities in Ukraine with missiles and drones—disrupting water, heating and electricity supplies for millions of people.

Kyiv mayor Vitali Klitschko said two persons were injured and 15% of households were without power and 40% without any heating following explosions in two areas of the Ukrainian capital. Meanwhile, the White House on Thursday called the latest barrage of Russian missile attacks targeting civilian infrastructure in Ukraine "brutal" and "unjustified."

It is "devastating to see these brutal, unjustified attacks on civilian infrastructure across Ukraine," Principal Deputy Press Secretary Olivia Dalton told reporters aboard Air Force One.

The attacks, which included use of state-of-the-art Kinzhal hypersonic missiles, have killed at least nine people, knocked out electricity for many Ukrainians and disrupted power at the Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant.

The governor of Ukraine's western Lviv region said that the bodies of five people had been found in rubble after a missile hit their house, while the governor of the eastern Dnipropetrovsk region said 34-year-old man had been killed.

Ukraine's nuclear energy operator said the strikes had also cut off the electricity supply to the Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant, which is controlled by Russian forces and is Europe's largest. For the sixth time since it was taken over, the facility is now operating on diesel generators which have an autonomy of 10 days.

"The countdown has begun. If it is impossible to renew the external power supply of the station during this time, an accident with radiation consequences for the whole world may occur," Energoatom said.

"This is a serious breach to the nuclear safety, caused by Russia," EU foreign policy chief Josep Borrell told reporters during a meeting the EU's development ministers in Stockholm. Agencies

Reliance relaunches Campa brand

Campa portfolio to initially include cola, lemon and orange flavours in beverage category

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

BILLIONAIRE Mukesh Ambani-promoted Reliance Consumer Products (RCPL) has now officially launched the 'cola war' against US-based beverage giants -- Coca-Cola and PepsiCo -- with the relaunch of once renowned Campa brand.

The relaunch, which was announced on Thursday, comes months after Reliance had acquired Capma for ₹22 crore from Delhi-based Pure Drinks.

"By presenting Campa in its new avatar, we hope to inspire consumers across generations to embrace this truly iconic brand and trigger a new excitement in the beverage segment," an RCPL spokesperson said.

The launch of Campa comes as the summer season is about to hit Indian subcontinent, the time when demand for beverages shoots up. As per industry experts, Reliance has a fair chance of making a dent in the duopoly market. "Carbonated beverages market in India is a duopoly with Coke and Pepsi dominating it for decades with a few regional players on the fringe. Reliance is coming up on a national level and has a fair chance of making a dent in the duopoly. By relaunching an old brand it will save time and money of creating a new brand and recipes and building equity," Deepak Jasani, head of retail research, HDFC Securities, told this newspaper. It was the reentry of Coca-Cola into the Indian market following the liberalisation in early 1990s and its fierce competition with PepsiCo that led to fall and eventual collapse of Campa, a brand highly popular in the 1970s and 1980s.

Reliance is offering Campa at prices much lower than competing firms. A two-litre bottle of Campa Cola is offered at ₹49 at Jio Mart as against ₹70 for a 1.75 litre bottle of Coca-Cola and ₹66 for a 2.25 litre bottle of Pepsi. The Campa portfolio will initially include Campa Cola, Campa Lemon and Campa Orange. "The acquisition and subsequent launch of Campa brands by Reliance signifies its intent to strengthen its diverse acquired FMCG portfolio, which comprises heritage brands from Sosyo Hajoori, confectionary range from Lotus Chocolates and Sri Lanka's leading biscuit brand Maliban. This will help scale up its FMCG business," said Jasani.

He added that Reliance's strategy seems to be to go for small-sized deals valued at a few crores and then scale them up with its financial and marketing muscle.

Jio Platforms buys Mimosa for $60 million

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

JIO PLATFORMS, digital arm of Reliance Industries, on Thursday announced buying US-based communications equipment maker Mimosa Networks for $60 million.

The deal will help Jio, India's largest telecom operator to bolster its 5G telecom and broadband services. The firms in a statement said Radisys Corporation, a subsidiary of Jio Platforms, signed a definitive agreement with Airspan Networks Holdings for acquisition of Mimosa for $60 million on a debt free, cash free basis. "Acquisition of Mimosa will accelerate Jio's innovation and leadership in production of telecom network products that deliver value to consumers and enterprises across globe with cost-effective, rapidly deployable fixed and mobile broadband," said Mathew Oommen, President of Jio.

Lenskart in talks with ADIA for $500 mn stake sale

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

SOVEREIGN wealth fund Abu Dhabi Investment Authority (ADIA) is looking to acquire stake in eyewear retailer Lenskart for about $500 million.

The negotiations for the stake sale between the eyewear startup, owned by Peyush Bansal who is one of the judges in the reality show Shark Tank India and ADIA are in advance stages, according to sources. ADIA, which is an investment management agency investing funds on behalf of the Abu Dhabi government, wants to buy a mix of existing Lenskart shares and new equity. The deal, which would value Lenskart at more than $4 billion, may be announced as soon as this week, according to sources.

Lenskart is attracting investments at a time when start-ups are undergoing financial contraints and are laying off employees.

Lenskart, which leverages technology and supply chain automation to sell glasses and contact lenses directly to consumers, was co-founded in 2010 by Peyush Bansal, who now serves as its CEO. The start-up has grown into India's largest optical brand and is backed by other investors like KKR, SoftBank Group, Temasek Holdings, and PremjiInvest.

The eyewear retailer was also in talks with private equity firm ChrysCapital, which has backed start-ups Dream11, Xpressbees and FirstCry in India, for an investment of about $100 million in Lenskart. In June last year, Lenskart acquired Japanese eyewear brand Owndays for about $400 million, which is expected to help its expansion into the South-east Asian markets.

While most of Lenskart's 1,100 stores are in India, the firm aims to continue expansion with 400 new stores as it looks to scale its revenue. Lenskart's consolidated revenue from operations grew 66% to ₹,502 crore in FY22, compared to ₹905 crore last year.

Over the past few years, Lenskart has conducted secondary share sales to pave the way for partial exits to investors such as Chiratae Ventures and others. Since its inception in 2010, Lenskart has raised a total of $1.06 billion, including through secondary share sales, according to Tracxn -a data platform for privately held start-ups.

Sebi introduces rewards for info about defaulters

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

CAPITAL markets regulator Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) has introduced a reward system of up to ₹20 lakh to informants for sharing information about the assets of defaulters. The amount of reward granted to the informant will be paid from the Investor Protection and Education Fund.

Coming up with guidelines on grant of reward to an informant who provides information about the assets of the defaulter under recovery proceedings, Sebi said, "information and the identity provided by the informant or the reward paid to him shall be held in confidence."

The reward could be granted in two stages - interim and final. While the interim reward amount will not exceed 2.5% of reserve price of the asset regarding which tips was provided or ₹5 lakh, whichever is less and the final reward amount will not exceed 10% of the dues recovered or ₹20 lakh, whichever is less.

"A person shall be considered to be an informant eligible for reward in accordance with these guidelines if he furnishes Original Information in relation to asset of a defaulter(s) concerning the dues which are certified as 'Difficult to Recover'," said Sebi. The difficult-to-recover dues are the ones which could not be recovered even after exhausting all the modes of recovery. "The claim of reward shall be confined to cases where recovery of dues could be made in pursuance of the information so provided by the informant. The information provided must be supported by facts and should be specific and actionable," it added. As per Sebi's annual report for 2021-22, it segregated dues to the tune of ₹67,228 crore under "difficult to recover" (DTR) category at the end of March 2022.

Scandal-hit Axis AMC overhauls top deck; appoints new CEO, CIO

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

HIT by front-running scandal, Axis Asset Management Company, country's seventh largest mutual fund house, on Thursday announced key changes in top management in a bid to regain investors' confidence.

The fund house has let go of its long-time CEO and MD Chandresh Nigam. It has appointed B Gopkumar as managing director and chief executive officer and has roped in Ashish Gupta from Credit Suisse as chief investment officer. Gopkumar will replace Nigam. Nigam had joined Axis AMC in July, 2009 as head of equities and assumed the role of MD & CEO on May 1, 2013 and led Axis AMC for two terms spanning 10 years.

"As part of the internal succession plan, B Gopkumar who is currently the MD & CEO of Axis Securities has been approved by the Board to be the MD & CEO of Axis AMC from May 1, 2023 till April 30, 2026, subject to receipt of requisite approvals as necessary. Pursuant to this movement, internal succession process at Axis Securities has been initiated," said the company in a statement. Axis AMC, which manages assets of around Rs 2.50 lakh crore, was rocked by the front-running scandal that came to light when the fund house sacked its chief dealer Viresh Joshi in May 2022. Joshi was suspended after he was found guilty in an internal investigation. Front-running, which is illegal in India, involves purchasing a stock based on advance exclusive information regarding an expected large transaction that would affect its price. Capital markets regulator Sebi, last month, barred 21 entities, including Axis Mutual Fund's former chief dealer Viresh Joshi, from the securities market in connection with the front-running case at the fund house.

Gopkumar had joined Axis Securities as the Managing Director & CEO in October 2019, and has over 28 years of professional experience in financial services industry in areas of sales and distribution, managing large teams, marketing & branding & building of digital eco-system. Gupta was the Head of India equity research at Credit Suisse.

"With these appointments, Axis Mutual Fund will look forward to capitalising on Gopkumar's experience and leadership in building large distribution businesses, and Ashish's deep understanding of capital markets and its constituents," said Amitabh Chaudhry, Chairman of Axis Asset Management Company.

SNAPPING a three-day bull run, domestic equity market witnessed a decline on Thursday with benchmarks Sensex and Nifty50 shedding little less than 1% each. The US Federal Reserve's hawkish stance on future rate hikes has been keeping investors cautious for the past two sessions.

At close, the Sensex was down 541.81 points, or 0.90%, at 59,806.28, and the Nifty50 plunged 164.80 points, or 0.93%, at 17,589.60. Shrikant Chouhan, head of equity research (Retail), Kotak Securities, said, "Selling pressure came to the fore after three days of relief rally, as the US Fed signalling further rate hike to tame inflation reignited worries of slowing growth. Also, the rising bond yields in the past few sessions are indicating that risk-off sentiment in equities will prevail going ahead and liquidity could tighten."

Heavyweight Reliance Industries and TCS fell nearly 2% while other top laggards in the Nifty pack were Mahindra & Mahindra, SBI Life Insurance, Adani Enterprise and Adani Ports. Vinod Nair, head of research at Geojit Financial Services, said the upcoming US job data will have a substantial impact on the Fed's policy decisions in its upcoming FOMC meeting. A stronger-than-expected jobs report will prompt the Fed to raise interest rates by 50 bps.

Meanwhile, shares of the embattled Adani group had a mixed day. While Adani Enterprises and Adani Ports plunged, Adani Power and Adani Wilmar surged to hit a 5% upper circuit after the National Stock Exchange (NSE) imposed an ASM framework for the Adani Group stocks. On the sectoral front, 14 out of the 15 sectoral indices on the NSE settled in the red.

US-based Hy-Vee opens GCC in B'luru

HRITHIK KIRAN BAGADE
@ Bengaluru

IOWA, US-based grocery retail giant Hy-Vee Inc opened its new Global Capabilities Center (GCC) in Bengaluru on Thursday. Christened Helpful Smiles Technology (HST) Global, the GCC occupies 34,000 sqft of space at Manyata Tech Park, and will see 100 professionals being on-boarded this year.

The HST Global team will work in conjunction with Hy-Vee's US technology teams to develop and deliver innovative solutions, aiding customers.

Speaking to The New Indian Express, Hy-Vee Executive Chairman of the Board and Executive Director Randy Edeker said, "This is the first GCC outside the US. While we were working with our US teams and were looking at our strengths... how we wanted to continue our growth, we were very focused on developing the digital side of our business. We started looking for the best opportunity to set up a second team, to help us become more agile and co-develop strategies to move quicker in positioning ourselves better in retail." Accordingly, the company zeroed in on Bengaluru, attracted by its tech talent.

Hy-Vee partnered with ANSR Inc, the US-headquartered firm that helps companies build and manage high-impact global teams in talent-rich locations across the world, in setting up the GCC.

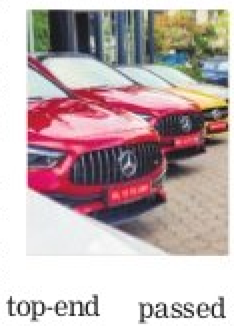
Meanwhile, the company plans to increase its headcount at the GCC to 250 by next year. Explaining the company's hiring strategy and the role the Bengaluru centre will play in the company's roadmap, Hy-Vee President Aaron Wiese said, "We have a variety of business units, and a primary focus on IT. There are several areas such as working on our digital strategy, app development, enhancements to the digital experience in our physical stores and online, and robust strategies around data... powering a lot of things that inform our marketing, merchandising, and retail media strategy... We see this as an opportunity to grow across our business units."

Accordingly, the centre will see a team of software developers, engineers, Scrum managers, projects managers, data scientists and architects, among others being hired in the next two years.

Interestingly, the 95-year-old $14-billion retail company is employee-owned, and currently operates 550 stores across eight states in the Midwestern US.

Mercedes increases car prices by ₹2-12 lakh

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi



COUNTRY'S largest luxury carmaker Mercedes-Benz India on Thursday announced an upward revision on the ex-showroom price of its model range, effective April 1, 2023. The price correction would be in the range of up to 5% across the portfolio.

Prices of Mercedes-Benz cars will be revised by ₹2 lakh for an A-Class limousine and GLA SUV, ₹7 lakhs for a top-end S 350d limousine to ₹12 lakh for the top- end Mercedes Maybach S 580 luxury limousine.

The German carmaker said the depreciation of the currency compared to the Euro, combined with increased input cost including logistics costs, have been exerting significant pressureonthe company's overall operational cost.

"A combination of these factors have prompted Mercedes-Benz India to upwardly revise the ex-showroom price of its model range to offset some of these costs. While the company absorbs significant costs, some portion of it will be passed on to the consumers in order to sustain a profitable business," said the carmaker.

Mercedes-Benz India registered its highest ever sales in a calendar year (CY) at 15,822 units in 2022.

Muthoot gets board nod to raise ₹6,500 cr

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

MUTHOOT FINANCE on Thursday announced that its board has approved a proposal for raising up to ₹6,500 crore through an issue of redeemable non-convertible debentures (NCD) in one or more tranches on a private placement basis.

The proposed NCD issue will be listed on the BSE or the NSE. The tenure of the instrument, coupon rate, schedule of payment and the principal will be decided at the time of allotment. The board in its meeting held on March 9 also approved appointment of T M Saithumuhammed as the Chief Compliance Officer of the company with effect from April 1, 2023.

Govt takes steps to avert power shortage in summer

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE government is taking a slew of measures to ensure that the country doesn't face coal and power shortage in summers.

Power ministry has asked plants to undertake maintenance of their plants well in advance. The ministry has received committment from railways to provide 418 rakes to transport coal and directed all imported coal-based plants to run at full capacity. It has also been decided that in case of power shortage, gas-based power would be used to meet any peak demand. These decisions were taken in a meeting held by power minister R K Singh with all stakeholders on March 7, 2023. In the meeting, detailed discussions took place on various aspects to meet the high electricity demand in April and May. This year, the government expects the peak electricity demand to be about 229 GW in these two months.

Singh directed the power utilities to undertake maintenance for coal-based power plants well in advance so that no planned maintenance is required during the crunch period. The railway agreed to provide 418 rakes to different subsidiaries of Coal India and captive blocks. The railway department can enhance the number of rakes in due course so that sufficient coal stock can be maintained at power plants.

The ministry has already invoked Section 11 of the Electricity Act, 2003, which mandates all imported coal-based (ICB) power plants like Tata Power and Adani Power plants in Mundra, Gujarat; Essar power plant in Salaya; JSW Ratnagiri to run at full capacity. It had also asked the power gencos to blend imported coal up to 6% of their requirement till September 2023. Last year, the country faced a power crisis due to coal shortage. However, the coal ministry always maintained it had sufficient coal but no way of transporting it. In the meeting, Singh also directed NTPC to run its 5000 MW gas-based power stations during the crunch period in April-May.

No coal shortage in country: Secretary

NEW DELHI: There is no coal shortage in the country and the current stock is sufficient for about 44 days, said coal secretary Amrit Lal Meena on Thursday. As per the coal ministry, right now around 100 million tonne (MT) of domestic coal is available in the country which includes 64 MT at mine pithead, 6 MT in transit at good sheds, washery and ports and 31 MT at thermal power plants. The average daily consumption of coal for plants is 2.3 MT a day. The current daily production in the country is about 3.3 MT a day from coal mines, which is much more than the daily consumption at thermal power plants. Meena added that the ministry will start bidding process for 138 new coal mines in April. ENS

NOTIFICATION

Whereas, upon considering the reports of the Deputy Commissioner Belagavi District and after due investigation of the complaints of depositors it has come to the notice of the Government, that Shri Bhimambika Mahila Multipurpose Souharda Sahakari Niyamit, Belagavi is involved in fraudulent transactions by clandestinely and illegally collecting deposits or money from the general public and thereafter have failed to return the same either after maturity or on demand made by the depositors or complainants with promised interest and other assured benefits and thereby have failed to render the services promised to them.

And whereas, it has further come to the notice of the Government that Shri Bhimambika Mahila Multipurpose Souharda Sahakari Niyamit, Belagavi and people associating with them have been acquiring lands, movable and immovable properties, cash and others from and out of the deposits or money so collected, from the depositors or complainants and thereby deviating from the intended purposes of accepting the deposits or money.

And whereas, the Government has reason to believe that the actions of Shri Bhimambika Mahila Multipurpose Souharda Sahakari Niyamit, Belagavi and people associating with them are acting in and detrimental to the interest of the depositors or complainants whose intention was to defraud the innocent depositors, and it has become necessary to protect the interest of the depositors of the Shri Bhimambika Mahila Multipurpose Souharda Sahakari Niyamit, Belagavi.

And whereas, now the Government after considering the report of the Director General of Police, CID Special Units & Economic Offenses and satisfying itself about the urgent need to protect the interest of the depositors and in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section 3 of the Karnataka Protection of interest of Depositors in Financial Establishment Act, 2004 (Karnataka Act 30 of 2005) hereby makes the following order, namely:

"ORDER"

Now therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section 3 of the Karnataka Protection of interest of Depositors in Financial Establishment Act, 2004 (Karnataka Act 30 of 2005), the Government under the circumstances stated above having satisfied that in order to protect the interest of depositors it is necessary to attach the movable and immovable properties believed to belong Shri Bhimambika Mahila Multipurpose Souharda Sahakari Niyamit, Belagavi.

Therefore, the Government hereby attaches movable properties as specified in the Annexure to this order believed to have been acquired by the Shri Bhimambika Mahila Multipurpose Souharda Sahakari Niyamit, Belagavi either in its own name or in the name of any other person from and out of the deposits collected by the Shri Bhimambika Mahila Multipurpose Souharda Sahakari Niyamit, Belagavi and where it transpires that such money or such other properties of the said financial establishments, or the personal assets of the promoters, partners, directors, managers or members or any other person of the said financial establishments is not sufficient for the repayment of the deposits or interest or such other assured benefits to the depositors

Note: All the aforesaid movable properties from the date of publication of this order in the Official Gazette, shall forthwith vest with the Competent Authority, who has been appointed by the Government, pending further orders from the Special Court.

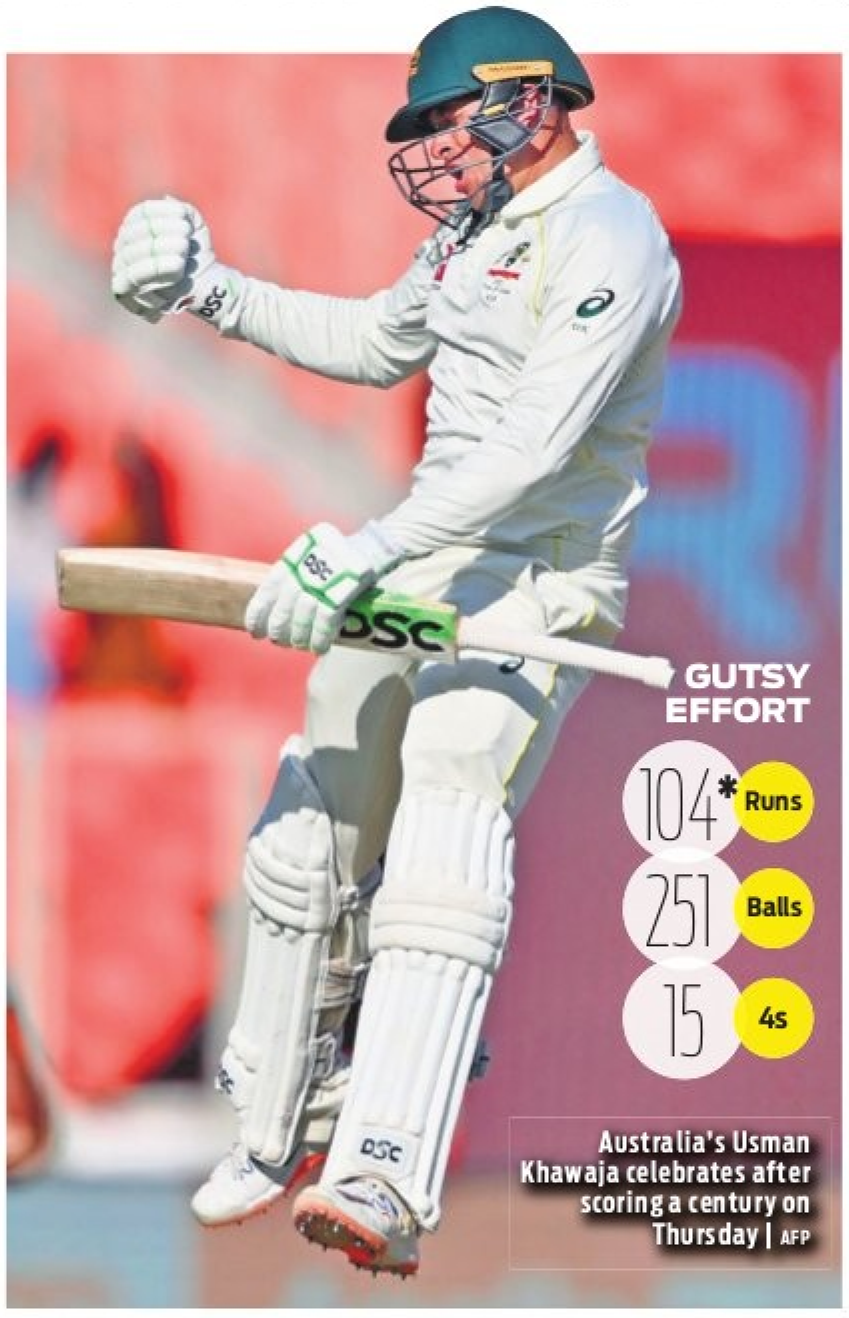
ATK Mohun Bagan & Hyderabad play out draw

It was a clash between two teams with good defensive records in the Indian Super League this season and that was evident on Thursday. In a clash that was being held in Hyderabad, Hyderabad FC and ATK Mohun Bagan played out a goalless draw in the opening leg of their semifinal contest. Both teams had fair amount of chances but were unable to break the deadlock. The second leg will be held on March 13.

KHAWAJA 2.0: GREAT REVIVAL

Opener plays smart cricket to crack ton on Day 1 vs India, steers visitors to strong position on a good batting wicket

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Ahmedabad



Australia's Usman Khawaja celebrates after scoring a century on Thursday | AFP

USMAN Khawaja began his morning by shaking the hands of India's Prime Minister, Narendra Modi. At the end of the day's play, Australia's Cameron Green shook Khawaja's hands as the southpaw notched a sixth Test century since the beginning of 2022, once again redlining his new-found status as one of the best batters in the sport's longest format. It has certainly not been an easy journey to the top for the Pakistan-born 36-year-old.

But it's been a reward for the hard work he has put in. This second wind of his is all the more remarkable when you consider the outside noise he had to deal with was so visceral he thought he had no ability to play spin. In this series, which has included treacherous surfaces like the one in Indore, not many batters have looked as assured as Khawaja. He was coming into the Test on the back of two half-centuries in the first three games so he had already spent some time in the middle. So, on a very good innings-building surface if you were up for the grind, he was never going to miss out. If the common themes on all the three previous first days were ball beating bat, finding both edges or hitting the pads, the one reassuring sound in Ahmedabad was the ball finding the middle of Khawaja's blade for the majority of the day.

On good batting days in Asia, batters may try to push the needle a little bit in terms of run-scoring. Because the pitch might deteriorate under the sun and wickets can fall in a heap, achieving that balance between defending and run-scoring can be a bit tricky. Khawaja found it even as the other batters perished. Travis Head got the visitors off to a quick start before gifting a catch to mid-on while trying to go over his head. Both Marnus Labuschagne and Steven Smith chopped on when looking set for lots. Peter Handscomb lost his off stump thanks to Mohammed Shami finding some late movement with the old ball. Speaking of Shami, he was the pick of the Indian bowlers who kept the hosts in the game after a strangely off-colour opening spell saw both bowlers err in line as well as length.

After the first 60 minutes though, they put the skids on the scoring. By the time lunch was called, they had prised out Labuschagne also. It's why this all-terrain bowling attack has been highly complimented in recent years. Even if the pitch is unresponsive, they smuggle wickets by sticking to a stump-to-stump line and dry up the runs.

Unfortunately for India, Khawaja didn't mind the chess game that was unfolding. While Labuschagne's lazy waft outside the off stump with minimalistic foot movement was suggestive of a batter who was looking for cheap runs on a good strip, Khawaja was prepared for the long grind to gain maximum benefit. "I don't think I have smiled so much when getting a century before," he said after the day's play, still smiling like a kid in a candy store. "(I) felt could just bat normally, that's why I didn't take too many risks. Just keep grinding away.

"Stick to my process. What the bowlers are doing, how I think 'they are trying to get me out'. Where can I score my runs? All these things going through my head... not like I'm just batting out there, I'm not. There's always stuff happening, changing my guard. Come forward, go back. it's always chess out there which you don't see from the outside unless you are an experienced cricket watcher or a cricketer back in the day."

Part of the chess game India was playing involved bringing mid-on and mid-off up to Khawaja and asking him to clear it, like what they did with Head. On other days, Khawaja will have accepted the bait. Thursday wasn't one of those days. "Had to put my ego away, a few times they brought up mid-off and mid-on up," he explained. "I really wanted to hit them over the top which is what I would normally do but I thought 'I will just keep grinding away'."

He has been doing an awful lot of that in recent times. Tied for most 100s (six), most runs scored (1532), most balls faced (3019) and most fours (166)... it's all suggestive of a batter enjoying his vocation. What will give him joy is that he has generated a big chunk of these numbers in Pakistan and India, two places he was told he wasn't fit to play in. "Throughout the middle of my career, I got told I couldn't play spin. That's why I never got the opportunity to play against India. It was nice to go out there and tick off a 100 in India. If you had asked me five years ago, I would have said 'are you crazy? So, yeah, lots of emotion. Never expected this to happen."

Extraordinary start as PMs take centre stage

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Ahmedabad

THE cricketing and political establishments of India and Australia formed the backdrop for one of the most extraordinary starts to a Test in India in recent memory. It culminated with the toss being delayed by two minutes as the Prime Ministers of the countries, Narendra Modi and Anthony Albanese, went around the huge stadium, named after the Indian Prime Minister, for a lap of honour. Former India captain, Sourav Ganguly, had made Steve Waugh wait for the toss in the 2001 series but that was different from what transpired on a hot early summer day inside one of the world's biggest sporting stadia.

It was surreal to see both PMs waving to the crowd, sizable but nowhere close to the 90,000 or so projected pre-match. As the two captains – Steve Smith and Rohit Sharma – were waiting patiently pitchside, the two PMs were being escorted around the outfield in a chariot. It was reported that the repurposed chariot was originally a golf cart that was used at the National Games in Gujarat last year. The redesigned cart looked like a batmobile. It was complete with two giant-sized cricket bats and three sets of stumps sticking out the back of the vehicle. The extraordinary nature of the day was a given as soon as the commentators were asked to get into the stadium by 6.30 AM. As the crowds thronged to get in, some of the chants suggested where their allegiances lay. It had nothing to do with Virat Kohli, Sharma or Smith. "Modi, Modi, Modi," went the crowd.

On the field, some of the players, after marking their run-ups, quietly dispersed to the nets a good hour or so before the start of the Test. This was highly unusual as sides largely practice in the ground on the mornings before all days of a Test. That routine was changed because of the function.

It began when Modi and Albanese were welcomed onto a giant makeshift stage in front of the sight screen. After they sat, the two captains met them where they were presented with team caps. There was also a photo-op as the four linked hands to celebrate '75 years of friendship through cricket'. After that was complete, both captains went out for the toss while the PMs went around the stadium. At the time, it was hard to figure out if this was a Test inside a political event or the other way around. In the middle of all this, there was also a performance by Falguni Shah, 2022 Grammy winner. The PMs made their way back to the playing area for one last time as they lined up with the teams for the national anthems. After such an elaborate ceremony, it was no surprise that the first ball of the Test, bowled by Mohammed Shami, was so wide it went to second slip.

WRESTLING

Injured Ravi out, trials begin today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Chennai

INJURED Ravi Dahiya joined the list of top wrestlers skipping the selection trials scheduled at the IG Stadium in New Delhi to pick the team for the Asian Championships. The trials for the freestyle and Greco-Roman wrestlers will be held on Friday while the trials for women wrestlers will be organised the next day. Earlier, as reported by this daily, injured Bajrang Punia, his wife Sangeeta Phogat, Vinesh Phogat and Sakshi Malik had already decided to skip the trials.

The oversight committee, which was formed to run the day-to-day affairs of the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI), is organising the trials. "Ravi is nursing a knee injury so he will not compete. Deepak Punia will participate. Similarly, Anshu and Sonam will also take part in the trials as the continental event is important if wrestlers wish to participate in the upcoming World Championships, which is also an Olympic qualifier," sources confirmed to this daily.

Meanwhile, the High Court of Delhi on Thursday permitted five wrestlers to participate in the trials. Justice Prathiba M Singh, in a special hearing held on a holiday, said petitioner wrestlers — Anuj Kumar, Chander Mohan, Vijay, Ankit and Sachin Mor — shall be allowed to compete and be judged on their own merit. The High Court said the participation in the trial shall not be construed as any opinion made by the court on the merit of wrestlers on which the decision of the selection committee will be final. Earlier the oversight committee set a few criteria to select wrestlers for the trials. It also constituted a selection committee for the purpose. MC Mary Kom is the chairperson of the selection panel, which also includes Yogeshwar Dutt and Babita Phogat.

B'desh shock world champs

AGENCIES @Chittagong

NAJMUL Hossain hit 51 off 30 balls as Bangladesh held their nerve to beat world champions England by six wickets in the first T20 international in Chittagong on Thursday.

Najmul's third T20I fifty guided Bangladesh to 158-4 in 18 overs after the hosts held England to 156-6, despite skipper Jos Buttler making 67 off 42 balls. Brief scores: England 156/6 in 20 ovs (Butler 67, Salt 38; Mahmud 2/26) lost to Bangladesh 158/4 in 18 ovs (Najmul 51, Shakib 34 n.o).

Choupo-Moting helps Bayern see off PSG

AGENCIES @Munich

ERIC Maxim Choupo-Moting scored against his former club as Bayern Munich ended the Champions League hopes of Paris Saint-Germain on Wednesday, beating the French club 2-0 in their last-16 second leg to reach the quarter-finals.

Choupo-Moting, who featured for PSG in their 1-0 Champions League final loss to Bayern in Lisbon in 2020, sidefooted the ball home after Thomas Mueller dispossessed Marco Verratti inside his own penalty area. Substitute Serge Gnabry scored in the last minute to wrap up a 3-0 aggregate victory for the six-time European champions.

Bayern reached the last eight for the fourth straight year, while PSG will need to wait at least another season to lift the coveted trophy for the first time.

Toothless Tottenham

LONDON: Antonio Conte said Tottenham still need time to become a European force after bowing out in the last 16 1-0 on aggregate to AC Milan after a 0-0 draw on Wednesday. A European elimination hot on the heels of an exit from the FA Cup means Spurs' 15-year wait to win a trophy will extend for at least another season.

Mooney out of WPL, SA's Wolvaardt steps in

AGENCIES @New Delhi

AUSTRALIA'S T20 World Cup winner and Gujarat Giants captain Beth Mooney was ruled out of the inaugural Women's Premier League Thursday after suffering a calf injury in her team's opening match.

Mooney suffered the calf strain while batting in the second innings of the team's tournament-opening defeat to the Mumbai Indians on Saturday.

"Unfortunately, injuries are part and parcel of the sport and I am gutted to be missing the remainder of the season," she said in a statement.

The Giants said Mooney they have drafted South Africa's Laura Wolvaardt to replace the aggressive wicketkeeper-batter. Mooney is "expected to take 4-6 weeks... to retain full fitness and complete her rehabilitation," the Giants said in a statement. India's spin-bowling all-rounder Sneh Rana take over the Gujarat captaincy with Australia's Ashleigh Gardner as her deputy.

Thursday's match: Delhi 105 in 18 ovs (Lanning 43; Jemimah 25; Wong 3/10, Saika 3/13, Hayley 3/19) lost to Mumbai 109/2 in 15 ovs (Yastika 41, Hayley 32).

Can RCB get off the mark?

Three losses in as many games is not good for any team. RCB will look to stop the rot when they take on UP Warriorz in their fourth outing. A look...

PRESSURE ON MANDHANA

She is central figure of this team, their captain and their biggest match winner. However, Smriti Mandhana hasn't been able to step up so far in WPL. In what is a must-win game, all eyes will be on the southpaw to deliver and take her team home.

RENUKA VS HEALY

Renuka Singh Thakur has seen a rapid rise in the last 12 months and has had an edge on Alyssa Healy in 2022. However, she hasn't made an impact in the WPL so far. Will the seamer do that against a familiar opponent on Friday?

WILL UP BRING BACK GRACE?

They brought in Shabnim Ismail for Grace Harris as they knew they need a strong bowling attack, but without the former, UP seem to fall short on bench strength in their batting. They might have to figure out a way to play their best four overseas options in the XI.

Renovated Chepauk stadium to be opened on March 17

GOMESH S @Chennai

VERY soon the iconic MA Chidambaram Stadium is set to wear a new look. The work on the south side of the stadium, where the heritage block stands, is nearing completion. If everything goes as per plan, it should be ready for inauguration by next week. Visiting the stadium itself had a different feeling.

The sun is beating down on Marina Beach, bright and strong, an indication of the approaching summer. The breeze from the sea is still cool and gives you solace from the scorching sun, as you walk down Walajah Road and step into the premises of the MA Chidambaram Stadium. Inside it seems like a different universe, all quiet and green on one side, while on the far side, it's a little different. That's where the renovation work is going on, where one can see people on every floor, working at a rapid pace, oblivious to the heat and dust. They are working at a frivolous pace, day in and day out to complete the renovation work at the southern end of the stadium.

The Tamil Nadu Cricket Association, the custodian of the stadium, is trying to get things done as early as possible. After all, they have a deadline to meet. The TNCA is confident everything will be in place before March 17, the day of the official opening of the stands.

Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin and Youth Welfare and Sports Development Minister Udhayanidhi Stalin will be part of the rituals. In less than a week after the opening, the ground will host the third ODI between India and Australia on March 22, followed by home matches of the Chennai Super Kings during the Indian Premier League. "The pavilion work is done," TNCA treasurer TJ Srinivasaraj says. "Final work is going on in the roof of the stands and it will be done in a week. The infrastructure committee, headed by (former TNCA president) Rupa Gurunath, have taken care of everything. Everyone is working round the clock and the ground will be ready on time."

The work on the south side of the MA Chidambaram Stadium, where the heritage block stands, is nearing completion | ASHWIN PRASATH

Established in 1916, Chepauk is the second oldest cricket stadium in the country and there is no shortage of history. Over the years, the ground has been through several modifications — the last renovation was done before the 2011 ODI World Cup. The ongoing work will see the old Anna Pavilion and Madras Cricket Club building with an old concrete roof and giant pillars replaced by a state-of-the-art dressing room and corporate boxes. However, that is not just all. "We are going to have a TNCA museum, with old photos and reports. The Chepauk ground has seen some historic cricketing moments, including the first Ranji match, accessories of English cricketers who played before independence, etc. There will also be a CSK museum and a cafeteria on the ground floor where the general public can come during their leisure time on non-match days," says Srinivasraj.

From the fans' perspective, to make their experience at the stadium comfortable, the TNCA has extended a few more toilets around the venue and it will run free RO drinking water kiosks at various points on match days. What's more, the capacity of the stadium is set to increase with a full house expected to hold close to a 38-38,500 strong crowd. It will be the first time in several years the city will see Chepauk at its full capacity. This year, however, it could be special, especially for the city's adopted son and CSK captain MS Dhoni, too, as the IPL is returning to Chennai after four years.
